

Basketball

Girls' basketball has become more like the boys' basketball. This year, along with the roving guard and roving forward, the game started with a center jump instead of the center throw-in. Maybe, soon, the girls will have indefinite dribble.

Archery

For the first time, commencing at 7:30 a.m. on Wednesdays, archery continued throughout the school year. This gave interested girls a greater opportunity to better their skills in this individual sport.