

Capable Principal Dedicated to Brightening Hughes Star

Mr. Edwin Sutton, Jr., has done much to make our past years at Hughes memorable and enjoyable experiences. Competent, dignified, and friendly, he draws respect and admiration from student and faculty alike. As the chief administrator of our school, Mr. Sutton has taken upon himself the responsibility of providing the students with a pleasant atmosphere for learning. Although his position keeps him confined to a busy schedule, he still takes time to handle the individual problems of his students. Mr. Sutton's dedication to making Hughes students responsible citizens of the world is demonstrated by his constant urging for excellence, and the success of his endeavors is typified by the outstanding accomplishments of Hughes graduates in the fields of business and higher education.

