

Art Curriculum Includes Study of Many Art Forms

Do you like artistic things? Then head for the arts and crafts rooms on the second-floor annex. Colorful materials and a few good ideas produce imaginative results, which often find their way into display cases, onto bulletin boards and even into art contests. Art students also furnished needed publicity material.

Ambitious Music Department Enjoys Wide Reputation

Everybody's proud of the music department!

Band members spend many hours in Mr. Bruner's classroom preparing for their various public appearances.

Talented and well-trained singers from Miss Barker's junior high classes move up into the senior high choirs and chorus. Another "Superior" rating is the goal of Mr. Ayer's students.
