

The victorious College Bowl team: Steve O'Banion, Mary Davidson, Ann Baty, and Nathaniel Johnson. The MC is Bill Rippetoe. This assembly has fast become a favorite at Hughes.

In both junior high and senior high, Hughes has chapters of the National Honor Society. This year Mr. Metz shares the sponsorship of the junior high group with Miss Hollweck. They are proud of their young scholars who achieve a high degree of excellence in all their subjects. Recognition from teachers and parents comes to the members at a spring banquet, always well-planned and well-attended.

Honor students in senior high continue to uphold the four-fold Society purpose of Character, Leadership, Service and Scholarship. This year's service project, spearheaded by Tim Jeffries, president, and Ken Montag, project chairman, was to gather, repair, and distribute toys and games at Christmas. As a result of this successful project, over fifty needy families had a brighter Christmas.

The "College Bowl" assembly program, so popular with the student body, has become traditional.

As sponsor, Miss Kloak supervises the induction of members, who are required to have at least a 3.2 academic average.

Senior Honor Society officers Judi Morrison, John Benne, Rosemary Stelbasky, and Tim Jeffries discuss future Society activities.
