Reserve Cage Squad Finds Going Rough on Victory Road

The Reserve hoopsters finished the season in the red. The overall record for the Reserves was three wins and fifteen losses. The team scored two wins against twelve losses in league play. Although low on wins, the Little Reds played the game in the best tradition of Hughes sportsmanship. Coach Harold Gann, in his first year at Hughes, commended the boys on their hustle and team spirit.

The Little Reds clipped the wings of Aiken's Little Falcons in the second game of the season, for their first win. In later games, Walnut Hills and Lakota were also victims of the skillful ball-handling tactics of the Hughes athletes.
