

Spring Is Here, Get Out Tennis Rackets

When spring rolls around, girls interested in G.A.A. tennis head for the courts at Coy Field every Tuesday for practice. Girls who already know the basic fundamentals of the game develop skill enough to represent Hughes at the play-day held at Lunken Airport playfield in May. "Yea, Red! Yea, White! Serve that ball with all your might!"

Candy Foit smashes one over the net as G.A.A. tennis swings into action. Tennis is just one of the many outdoor sports offered.

Dribble, Pass, Shoot—a Sure Two Points!

From the time the girls dash out onto the basketball court until the final whistle blows, there is plenty of action and excitement. Using the basic techniques of dribbling, passing, pivoting and shooting, the G.A.A. teams learn how the game is played. "Yea, girls, look at that score! Say, girls, we want more!" "We'd better get some shooting practice now," advises Mrs. Zeisler. "Line-up, girls, and don't jump over that foul-line."

Practice makes perfect and the girls are ready for the basketball playday.

A jump shot starts off another quarter of play in this exciting game.

Free-throw shooting is just one of the many fine points of basketball practiced by the girls. It appears that this shot won't make it, girls!
