

FACULTY

A C U L T Y

Day after day, students encounter several members of the staff and some conflicts usually arises. However, without such dedicated members, many students would not only be without guidance and inspiration. Day after after we, the students, see the same faces and at the present time we don't appreciate it, but eventually those who helped to shape us become legends in our minds.

