

CLASS OF 1992

Thursday, June 4, 1992 the BIG day was here for all seniors to take that last walk across the bridge. The weatherman on all channels predicted rain. Mr. Lowe and Ms. Walker prepared the auditorium as well as the stadium. Everyone was praying No! Rain! Lord I want all my family to see me graduate. The Lord heard our prayers. As we took that walk the class of 1972 walked with us. Kristin Lierl, valedictorian; Kweli Moyo, salutatorian; and class president number 3 in the class, Kiesha Kemper gave the class of 1992 food for thought and great hope for tomorrow. The speaker for the evening was councilman Tyrone Yates, the president from the class of 1972. When the last diploma was issued there were tears of joy, final good-byes and Hoorays. This means to work for some, to college for others. GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 1992.
