

LEFT:
Lashonda
Hill,
Sarah
Williams &
Angela
Suesz
explore the finer details
of the botanic and
zoologic
world in
Mr.
Zimmerman's
class along with their friend, the
caged iguana in the background.

ABOVE:
Principal Carol Walsh poses for a "candid" shot with two hams, otherwise known as Paloma "Polo" Santos-Maddox and Jenna Bayliss.

ABOVE RIGHT: Miykael Hanley gets some much needed assistance as he searches for a research paper reference. You might also have seen Miykael working at Arby's in the evenings or on the weekend.

RIGHT: Group projects are a key component of the IB program, allowing students to simulate the kinds of interpersonal skills they will need to be successful out in the "real" world.

