

Uzbekistan Visit

This school year, we were very fortunate to host an international delegation of educators from the nation of Uzbekistan. Both teachers and administrators from schools in Uzbekistan visited our school and our city to learn more about our educational system. Withrow students who spoke Russian were able to translate for the visitors not only while they were here at Withrow but also while they visited other Cincinnati sites such as the Krohn Conservatory and Fountain Square downtown.

