

Career Paths

Career Paths is a program which provides students entering the ninth grade at Withrow High School with the opportunity to explore a variety of careers focusing on business and marketing; financial analysis, accounting and entrepreneurship in the Academy of Finance; Law and Paralegal; Travel and Tourism. This year's Career Paths Seniors have been given many educational opportunities including internships at prestigious local companies such as American Airlines, Western Southers Enterprizes, Kendle International, and the Law Firm of Freking and Betz. The Ohio Young Scholars program, the Proctor and Gamble Business Initiative program, and the Cincinnati Police College Intern program have also provided them opportunities to obtain college scholarships.
