Graduation

It has been an 83 year tradition to hold the Withrow High School graduation ceremony at Angus King Stadium (the football field). After the May 2001 riots Superintendent Adamowski strongly recommended that all Cincinnati Public High Schools hold their graduation ceremonies at indoor facilities. Withrow chose to continue it's tradition and held a beautiful outdoor ceremony in it's stadium on May 31, 2001.

Tradition

The "Daisy Chain" tradition was continued at the "2001" Withrow Graduation ceremony. The Daisy Chain consists of a group of Junior girls with high grade point averages who assist with graduation ceremonies and responsibilities.
