

This prom was the best yet because of postive changes that took place. We changed photographer that allowed us to receive our pictures back the same night. The theme was Love You for Life. Many students were out in this world in their best and started it off with fantacies and pride. And ended with a fun fill night.

