June 6, 1996, the day for graduation. Students were anxious about this day trying to make sure everything would run smooth for them. Then the rain began to fall and the hopes for graduation outside had come to an end. But through it all the graduation was the very best. On this day parents crowded into the auditorium to hear their child's name called. Seniors took that final walk across the bridge in to the auditorium. This was a day of rejoicing, tears, fond good-byes to friends and teachers. This was a time to listen dynamic speakers who left everlasting impressions on our hearts and minds. We heard from Martha Moore, Valdeictorian and Erin Norman, Salutatorian. De'mond Howell, Senior Class Vice-President gave the speech for Senior Class President Erin Norman. This was a day for presentations, special greetings and conferring of diplomas.
