

“Much Love”

Trials and tribulations will always come to pass,
But it takes strength, faith, and courage to make something worth while last.

Me wanting to be with you, and you wanting to be with me,
Along with commitment, desire, and God we have all that we need.

I've experienced a lot and have seen things go wrong,
But as long as we have each other — in my heart there will be a song.

See I've been on my knees and I've prayed for a friend,
Someone by my side, who'll stick with me till the end.

A companion to laugh, and to talk with all day,
One with a sensitive ear to hear what I need to say.

A partner who's playful but serious enough to care,
One whom I can depend on — no matter what, he'll be there.

Someone who has strong morals and values instilled,
With a natural good spirit, this friend is strong willed.

He knows his true place and he knows his real job,
He knows that with me he's not required to have a Saab.

Treating me, a black woman, how I'm suppose to be,
Without me telling him that I am a Nubian Queen.

Interested in all ways, great or small, he will succeed,
In fulfilling my all and all, in fulfilling my every need.

I have this in Christ and much, much, more,
And he blessed me with a person like this whom I adore.

He blessed me with a gifted friend that I can pray with,
A study partner, a believer in me, two personalities that clique.
A face who I see when I sleep at night when all my dreams are seen,
After being stressed all day I'm calmed by a pleasant dream.

My buddy stays in my heart, he also stays in my mind,
No matter what anyone says to me, my friend is a one of a kind.
How pleasant must this be for me?, as pleasant as the sight of a dove,
When it comes down to it, for this friend of mine you know that I have

”MUCH LOVE”.
