

EVELYN BALLARD

Wishing you a lifetime of happiness and the utmost success in all your endeavors. You've made us very proud.

Love always, your family

ANN EALY

It seems like only yesterday that you were just so high. And though a lot of things may change as days and years go by. What better time than this to say a special prayer for you and ask our lord to bless your way an everything you do. To bless you in the years ahead not only with success but with the precious gift of health and peace and happiness.

Congratulations!

Love, Mom and Dad

You make us so proud!
