

In loving memory of . . .

Thierno Barry

Thierno Barry, 15 years old, died after saving one of his good friends who was about to drown in his neighborhood pool. Thierno played on the soccer team and scored many goals, helping to lead the team to the state playoffs. He's remembered by his devotion to the team, strengths, and achievements.

