

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

Fr. Behringer, a graduate of Catholic University, headed the language department this year. Father taught French to the Juniors and helped establish French as a lasting language in the school. Along with French, two "old standard" languages, Latin and German, were continued.

Freshmen became familiar with Latin through Bro. Dan and wars. The Sophomores furthered their study with Fr. Schaffer. It was said by some that Fr. Schaffer was teaching his classes the use of a siege tower so they could counteract Bro. Dan's wars.

German was taught by Miss Hurn, the only female member of the faculty. She came in on Tuesdays and Thursdays for two hour periods. Everyone appreciated her presence; it seemed to brighten the day.
