

Father Nieman accepts check from generous donor.

. . . As in all big projects the big problem is money. The financial status of the Lodge when Father Nieman was given the O.K., was exactly $35 and one mink stole. Today the Lodge is almost completely supported by private donations. The cost of running the Lodge for one year is $85,000. So you can see the job of financing the Lodge is an enormous one.

The Lodge is 35 acres large and was formerly Ogden Farm. It is located on Cold Spring on Skyline Drive. Recently a new dormitory was added. The boys in the bottom picture are Cuban Refugees . . .

Left to right: Rolando Villa, Father Nieman, Freddy Delgado, and Eduardo Rabel.