

Just one more throw

. . . As the night wore on the money kept pouring in. Financially, this festival is the best ever held at Covington Catholic. We sincerely hope that this money will in some small way help Father Nieman—a man who knows the problems of young men and what's more he is doing something about them.

We hope that you enjoyed this short story of Campbell Lodge and the part that it plays here at school.

