

PEP RALLY

"I wonder how much a bag of oats costs."

In the past at Covington Catholic it has been tradition to have pep rallies before the big games. Of course, no game is bigger than the Newport Catholic game. This year a new thing was tried and the rally was held outside for the most part. A straw horse representing the Thoroughbreds of Newport Catholic was constructed. Wood was gathered from all over the countryside for the big bonfire. Needless to say the rally was a huge success, even though a snow-storm hit right in the middle of it. Unfortunately we lost the game the next day—but who cares we had a good time, didn't we?
