

The Prom:

This year's prom, April Love, was certainly one to be remembered. At nine o'clock, April the fourteenth, on a seasonably warm night, the Juniors and Seniors filed into the Hofbrau Haus for four hours of dancing to Don Lackey and his orchestra, then later to Summit Hills, where things really got hopping to the tune of the New Lime. Without doubt, the Juniors had prepared an enjoyable evening for all.

How do you think my Grandma died?
