

The Campbell Lodge Festival

In the fall of every year Covington Catholic students put their heads and hands together to turn a drab gym into a colorful cascade of booths and games. With a lot of cardboard and yankee ingenuity, freshman, sophomores, juniors and seniors alike construct their own miniature amusement park.

The main purpose of the festival, of course, is to raise funds for Campbell Lodge, but, in reality, it is only a small part of the benefits reaped. All work together for a common goal and thereby share in a spirit of cooperation and achievement that makes life meaningful. This, above all, is the hallmark of Catholic education and all that it stands for.

Don't pull that one. It's holding up my pants.

Five bucks on Madman in the third.
