A school of porposes?

The Covington Catholic Swimming team, which has always been one of the most successful teams in the school, continued their winning ways this year, although they were raised to the tough "A" ranking class. The team, once again under the leadership of

Fr. Mac, not only posted a great record against the class "A" teams but also was very successful in the State meet when they finished 6th only one point out of fifth place which was quite an accomplishment in this new and extremely harder division.
