

spring festival

Despite the cold and rainy days of may, a new endeavor — the spring festival — was a big success. Through the efforts of the parents association, boosters, alumni, and students, who pooled their efforts, the weekend festivity became a reality. Although the weatherman refused to cooperate, things went well and, following the awarding of the oldsmobile 442, the administration looked to improvement next year.

coney day

Tuesday may 23 saw the arrival of the annual coney day. This year like all others covington catholic students enjoyed the day to the best of their ability. Many were in high spirits as the warm weather mixed with the enjoyment of the park itself provided quite a holiday.
