

Most valuable player, rick wulfeck, lets one go.

Based on the performance of this year's junior varsity, it appears that covington catholic will continue to reign as the best team in the region and one of the most powerful in the state. Under the guidance of coach "hep" cronin, the colonels finished with a fantastic 19-1 slate. On their way to the regional crown, they avenged their earlier one point setback by routing newport catholic 62-46. On february 23, covington catholic defeated st. thomas 55-39, to capture the school's first junior varsity regional title. The most valuable player was rick wulfeck. The best offensive player award went to bill topmiller and the best defensive player was ray derkson. wendell stowers was the most improved player.

gerry cooper squeezes off this shot.

The colonels close in for a rebound.

ray derkson goes around his defender for a basket.

