

colonel runners are mike ryan and jack nienaber.

cross country members must have great endurance.

sophomore jerry lea heads the pack.

Once again covington catholic had a successful cross country team. Under the expert eye of coach jack kaelin, with the assistance of bro. jerry servaites, the colonels compiled a 20-10 record. The JV finished with a 15-6 slate, promising aid for next year's team. The freshmen, coached by bro. joe turk, turned in a 7-4 record. covington catholic finished second in the region and wound up a strong ninth in the state.

mike plunkett turns the corner with the lead.

action in the regional tournament.

