

bob bell was well liked by all the seniors and underclassmen who knew him. he will be remembered for his happy go lucky personality and crazy behavior. unfortunately, bob's part time job limited his activities here at school.

jack bennings managed to be a "good student." However, his school spirit would not let him ignore the tennis team, the big brother program, or the senior class play. Majoring in computer programming at eastern state u. his popularity will not be forgotten.

tom bertke personifies the idea of a best friend. he is always willing to lend a hand or offer some helpful piece of advice. quiet, complex, well-groomed, the treasurers of the future will not elude tom's grasp.

class of '68

In his four years at covington catholic gene black was always known as a nice guy who was willing to lend a hand anywhere it was needed. Few persons in our senior class were liked or respected as much as gene. His future holds college on the horizons.

jack bogaczyk, was the jim murray of covington catholic. His interesting sports articles constantly filled the pages of the '67-'68 contact. jack was more than a necessity as head manager of the basketball team. He plans to further his education at u.k.
