

jim cooper will long be remembered at C.C.H. and throughout the entire state for his exceptional ball handling ability on the basketball court. jim quarterbacked the team to a pair of regional championships and five showings down state.

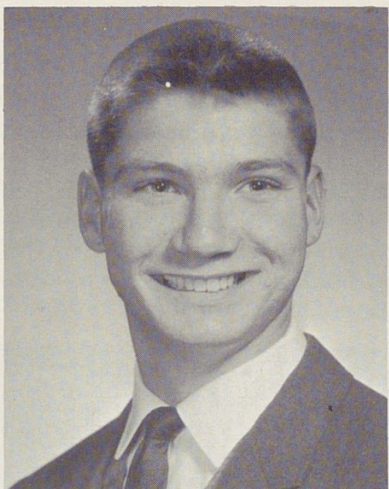

gary coyle, also known as the mathematical cheat sheet, is well liked among the seniors. He was a member of the top class and is going to enter the college of engineering at the university of cincinnati.

tom delahanty through his four years could never be said to be lacking in spirit. Although not participating himself he came to almost all the basketball and football games, to root the team to victory. Next year tom plans to enter college and later, enroll in a mechanics institute.

class of '68

tony depenbock was an active and level headed man around the halls of C.C.H. His everlasting energy and spirit involved him in many activities throughout his 4 years stay. He played freshman baseball and worked hard on the library staff in his junior and senior years.

