

john hoh, "hobo," came to be known by most students because of his warm and friendly attitude toward everyone. john has belonged to numerous clubs and organizations, where he has always obtained success. He plans to attend vocational school.

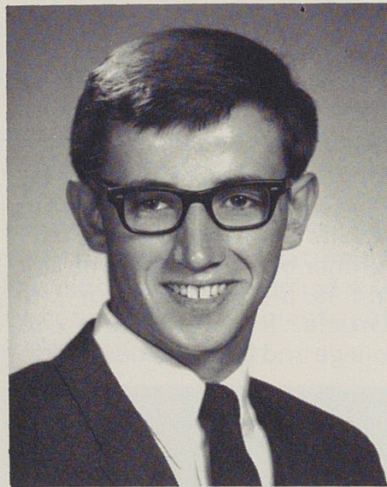

gary huff, who strangely resembles "leave it to beaver's" eddie haskel, devoted much of his free time to drums and cars. He was also a constant star of homeroom c's athletic endeavors. gary plans to enter thomas more next fall.

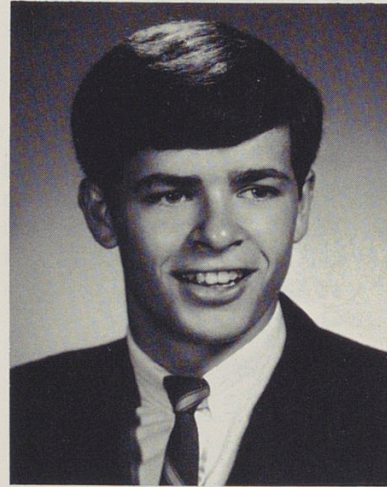

jim hunt's mastery of the pencil and brush made him known throughout the senior division. His work on the scenery of the senior class play proved to be the best in years. His outstanding talent will not be wasted as he plans to pursue the field of commercial art.

bill jordan is a type of fellow whose characteristics manifests his shining personality. He's always there with a helping hand in time of need. His future sees four years at thomas more college, pursuing the field of education.

tom justice has been an outstanding athlete for the four years he has been at Covington Catholic High School. He excelled in basketball in his freshman and sophomore years but devoted all of his time to baseball his final two years. He was a great help in campell lodge.

bill kathman's four year stay at CCH was climaxed by his election as senior class president. This honor was surely earned by Bill's many hours of dedication and work to the school. His were present smile make him popular with everyone. CCH will surely miss him.