

northern kentucky state vocational school, for the past two years has been graced by the presence of bill kloecker. As an average student he plans to join the navy.

dave knockelman was an easy going quiet type of guy. He proved to be very friendly if you took the time to know him. He participated in several activities and was known to his friends as "bull."

terry koenig was a devoted friend whose characteristic humor enabled him to break up a class. Cars were his main line of conversation, especially the one he hopes to get after graduation. he plans to study law at u.k.

seniors

dave kramer is well known for his involvement in the school, especially for organizing the fabulous rallies. In the future he is going to villa madonna college and major in business administration.

bill kreeb was one of our outstanding seniors. He was active in all phases of the school. bill, known also as ceaser, will be long remembered for his witty and resourceful personality. bill will enter st. pius x seminary to begin study for the priesthood.

tony kreimborg, better known as "weas" put in four years of basketball at CCH. In his junior year, tony earned a spot on the track team. In his senior year he was not only student producer of the play, but was student senate representative from homeroom 4-C. tony intends to begin college in the fall.