

danny marks was known for his witty essays and poems. He was an average student with many outside activities. He proved to his friends to be a man of many talents and expects to attend u.k. in the fall.

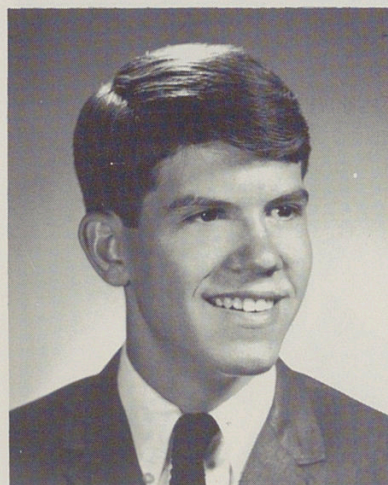

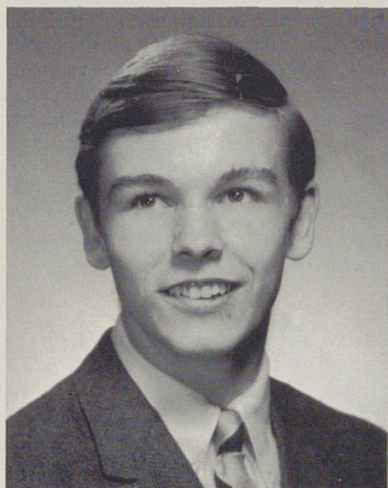

ray marsh was an average student who was also known to his friends as swampy. ray is quite a witty fellow and plans to attend u.k. in the fall.

As steve mccafertry, "wild eagle" demonstrated much leadership as a member of the student senate for three years and as president of the junior class. He participated in sports as a varsity swimmer and received the "offensive lineman of the year" award as center on the football team.

donald mcdermott was one of the best known students of one class. don is a lover of sports and played freshman and jv basketball. In the future we will find don at u.k.

larry mcmillin commonly known as "the rat" was always good for a laugh. His humor and kindness has won him many friends. His ability has rewarded him with places on the basketball and baseball teams. His teachers will remember him for his ability to break up a class.

steve meier can be considered as one of the unique men of covington catholic. Known around the halls as "pinky" he plans to continue his education at u.k., although he is still uncertain of his future endeavors there.