

joe messmer, whose part-time job limited his school activities, always tried to keep the class laughing. He was always a great friend to all he knew and can look forward to a prosperous tomorrow.

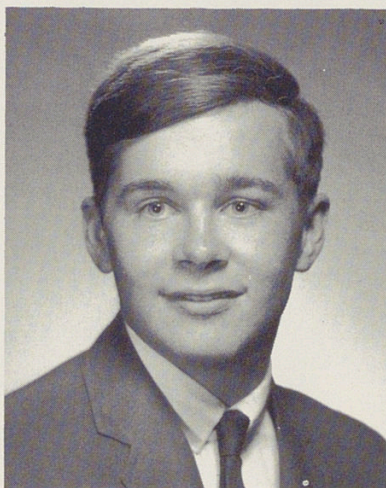

mike moehlman's friendly attitude and humorous approach to his school work made him a recognizable student at CCH. Setting his goals high, he will pursue engineering at u.c.

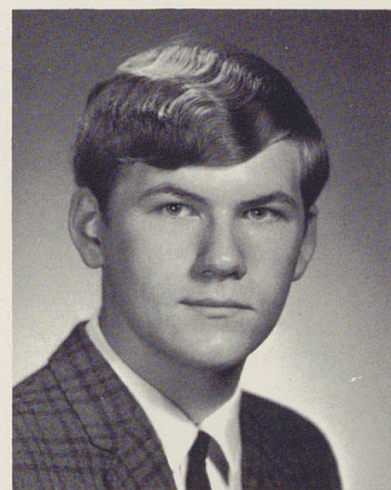

mike molony was a student leader and athlete throughout his four years at CCH. He held a class office for three years and as a senior occupied the chair position of the ways and means committee. Mike was a freshman member of the baseball and basketball teams and also played j.v. basketball.

seniors

rick moore transferred from latin school, coming to CCH as a sophomore. Rick has the brains of a good student and equally as well athletic ability. He excelled in tennis competition in his sophomore and junior years. Rick will attend u.k. to further his education.

jack mullins was a typical CCH student who possessed great spirit and vitality. He is a person that you can get to like the first time you meet because of his happy go lucky personality. He plans to attend u.k.

bill nienaber was a senior, yet friendly student. He was on the contact staff and supplied many a book report for students throughout the school.