

marty stulz can be classified as a very likable individual. He enjoys having good clean fun, but always managed to maintain good grades in school. He plans to attend the university of kentucky and major in history.

chris summe is an active participant in many school functions. "twiss" has enjoyed the success that few students have known. He is a good student, a hard worker, and his personality is unrivalled anywhere.

bill thaman did not get into any activities while at CCH, but he made up for this with his wit and timely comments, in addition to being a good student. bill plans to attend thomas more college after graduation from CCH.

rick trumble loved to play sports of all discriptions during his free time. Although not exactly sporting a perfect attendance he greatly profited from his education at CCH. The future will find rick studying at o.c.a.s.

fred van de geer was not an "outstanding" student in his four years here, but this did not make him unknown. He was always willing to give help when it was needed. He served as treasurer in his homeroom for 3 years, and acted in the senior class play.

gregory voegtle is a likeable kind of guy and easily makes friends. He was an active worker on the senior class play, and campbell lodge festival. He also took part in intramurals all four years. He plans to attend the ohio college of applied science to take electronics.