

SUPERINTENDENT

MR. J. D. BLACKFORD, delivers one of his famous speeches.

In the first assembly of the year, there is sure to be a tall, distinguished-looking man on the platform. He is introduced as Mr. Blackford, the superintendent.

Mr. Blackford received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Miami University. He has also done graduate work at U.C., Indiana U., and Columbia. Mariemont is very privileged to have him for their superintendent.

PRINCIPAL

MR. PAUL K. HOWELLS spend a great deal of time in his office.

This year Mariemont has a very fine new principal, Mr. P. K. Howells. He received his B.S. in speech from Northwestern University and his M.A. from the University of Michigan. He is now working on his Ph.D. Other schools he attended were Elmhurst College, O.S.U., Western Reserve, Baldwin Wallace, and Akron U. May this be the first of many successful years at the "helm" of Mariemont High School.
