

FAREWELL...

Graduation is here. And though we never believed it could happen to us, we are about to leave the halls that have sheltered us for so long. But we are leaving behind only the material things. Memories, knowledge, and experience which we have acquired at Mariemont will go with us always.

We are not the first class to be born into a world filled with problems, nor will we be the last; but we feel that we have been well prepared to face whatever lies ahead. For this we owe our appreciation to our faculty and parents. It is they who have helped us and been patient with us through our growing years.

Now it is time to say good-by. We have our memories that we shall never, never forget. We have thanked those who gave us their assistance. All that remains to be said is that we shall do our best to make our school proud of us and live according to the ideals that are a part of Mariemont.
