EDUCATION

DO YOU REMEMBER 1953?

FOREWORD

Do you remember . . . ? Do you remember the football games with the spice of autumn in the air? that tremendous production that the juniors gave in the fall? the first snow and Christmas vacation? those blue exam days? the crowded hall at the half-time of the basketball games? the Variety Show? the senior class play that came about the same time as spring fever? the prom? graduation?

Memories are dear to all of us. So let us remember everything. Let's not forget a single precious moment. We'll remember the things we did, the friends we made, and everything we learned; so that we can face life without fear. May this book help YOU to remember.

B.L.D.

THE MARIEMONT CHIEFTAIN

for nineteen hundred and fifty-three Mariemont, Ohio

IN THE FALL...

Students dance at the "Pumpkin Jump" on October 25.

Our cheerleaders—Nancy Hughes, Nancy Doll, Elaine Austin, Nancy Keown, Boots Nachtman, and Lynne Applegate—prepare to burn "Deer Park."

"Deer Park" is consumed by the flames as students look on at our annual pow-wow.

Annual editor, Betsy Dettwiler, and senior officers—Bill Ansell, Terry Jones, Don Clark, and Shirley Bieler—burn the midnight oil to think of ways to pay the unending bills.

Indian summer brings Mr. Downer and some of his band outside to practice.

Ned Dewire examines film in the projection booth as part of his job in showing movies for various classes.

Guess who? It's Elaine Austin, Rodney Jonas, Betty Ann Merydiith, and Henry Ware.

More students enjoying themselves at the "P. J.," sponsored by the seniors. This time it's Hilda Sellman, Harry Moreton, Jim Durham, and Betty Jo Koenig.

Mr. Downer and his band provide entertainment at half-time at the Lockland game on November 7.

Lynne Applegate and Charles McDaniel reign as Queen and King of Football at the "Football Royale" on November 8.

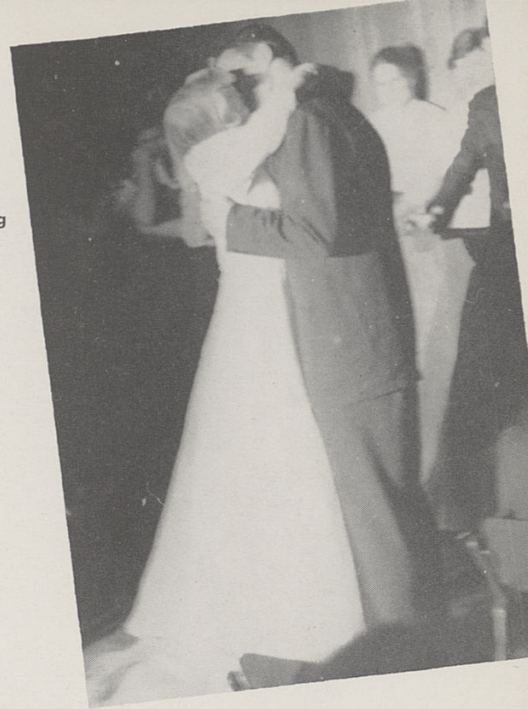

Fall brings football and all its excitement to Mariemont field.

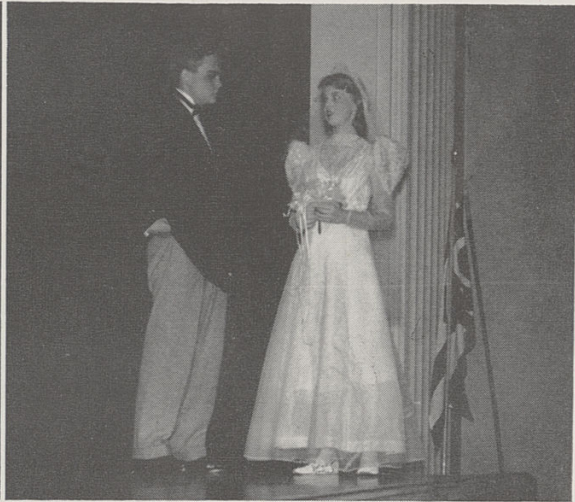

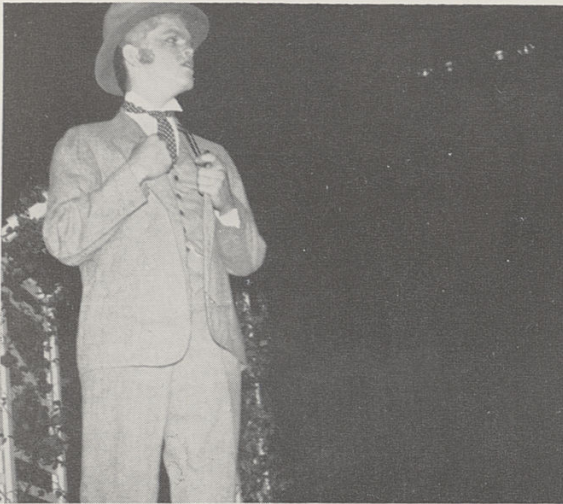

Emily and George in the wedding scene as played by Phyllis and Dave.

THE JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS "OUR TOWN"

The stage manager played by Rob Shackelford.

Mr. Webb and Emily played by Ned Dewire and Phyllis Riedeman.

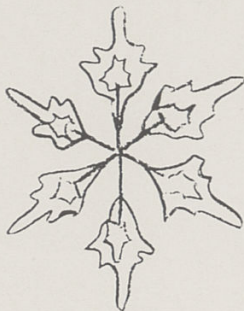

Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Webb played by Ann McCormack and Lois Rowley.

Emily, George, and the stage manager played by Phyllis Riedeman, Dave Martin, and Rob Shackelford.

IN THE WINTER...

Winter brings snow and cold to Mariemont.

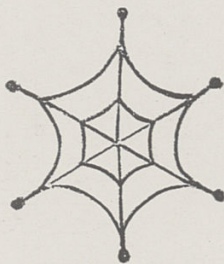

A more quiet atmosphere descends on study halls as students prepare for exams January 21, 22, 23.

This winter brought a tremendous basketball season, too. Here, Whelpley gets ready to shoot a long one.

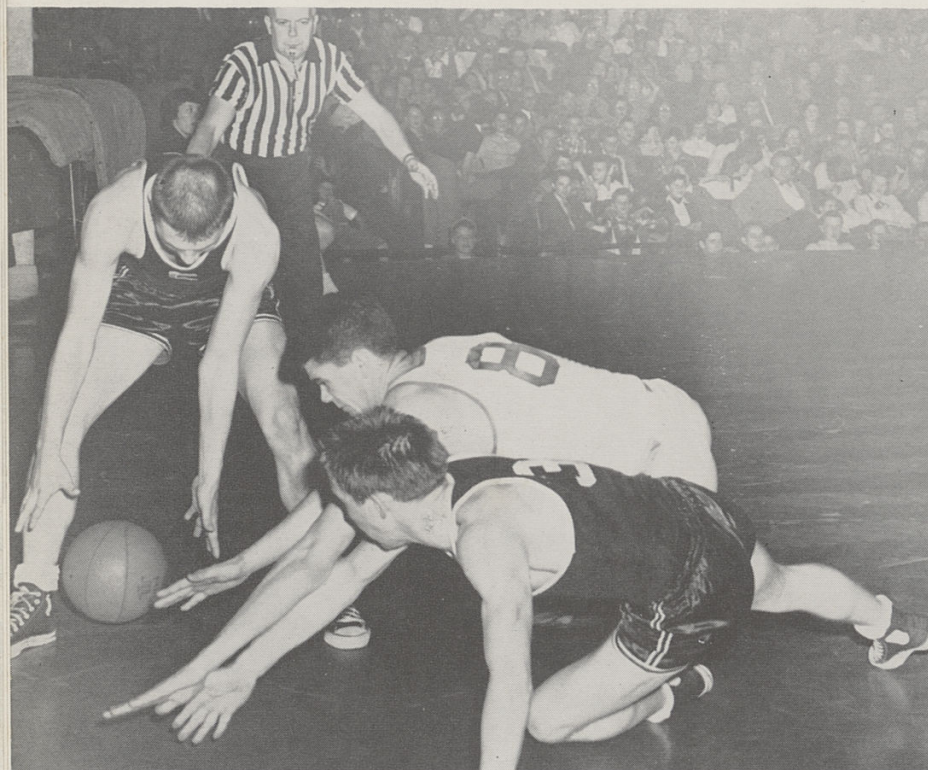

Out at last!! Marya Dollenmayer, like the rest of us, thought Christmas vacation would never come. But it did at last — twelve long days, December 24 — January 5.

Masque and Mantle presents a one-act play at the annual Christmas assembly, December 23. Marilyn Huheey, Joan Mileham, and Lynne Applegate are in a festive mood in this scene.

The cast of "As Merry As You Make It" proposes a Christmas toast. (That's grape juice.) Marilyn Huheey, Bill Ansell, Lou Sandberg, Joan Mileham, and Lynne Applegate have their glasses raised on high.

This basketball season won't be forgotten for a LONG time. Let's get on the ball, Whelp!

Terry Jones breezes in toward the basket during the Mariemont-Lockland game while Jerry Weber wards off the Panthers and Charlie McDaniel looks on.

Here we go again! That's Whelpley wearing number eight and Rod Jonas, number four. And that's Jerry Weber head and shoulders above the rest.

Lois Rowley, soloist.

Jim Whelpley, master of ceremonies.

Fred Juergens and Jean Prachar, comedy act.

SENIORS SPONSOR VARIETY SHOW, MAY 8 AND 9

Betty Simpson and Jo Anne Holland, tap dancers.

John Mallen and his trained dog.

Terry Jones, Harry Walters, Jim Durham, Rob Shackelford, and men.

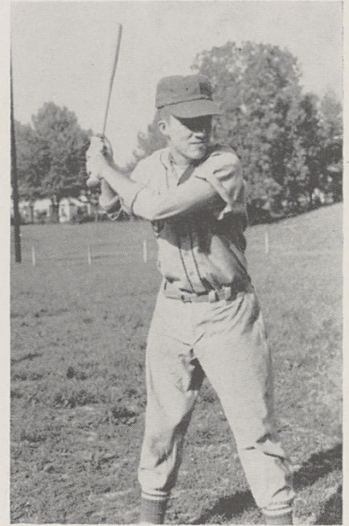

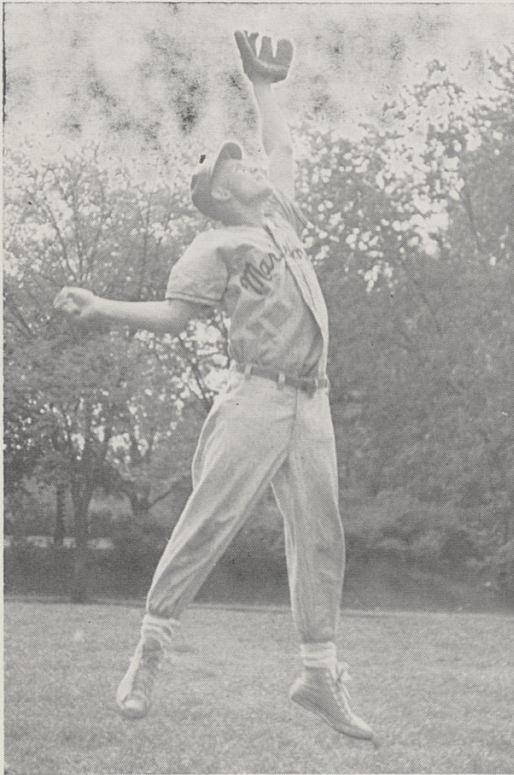

Phoebe Acheson, Barbara Redway, Linda High, Marie Sellman, Gayle Worsham, Marya Dollenmayer, Dorothy Steuwe, Linda Overly, eighth grade pony chorus.

IN THE SPRING...

Spring brings forth the call of "Play ball!"

Reach, Shane!

Spring also brings track men out of hibernation. Get on your mark!

SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS "LITTLE WOMEN," APRIL 10.

Aunt March, "Marmee," Mr. Lawrence, and Hannah played by Joan Mileham, Jenny Haenssel, Lou Sandberg, and Nancy Nesbitt.

The "little women," Beth, Jo, Meg, and Amy, as portrayed by Lynne Applegate, Marilyn Huheey, Shirley Bieler, and Hilda Sellman.

Professor Bhaer and Jo played by Henry Ware and Marilyn Huheey.

Laurie and Jo played by Bill Ansell and Marilyn Huheey.

John Brook and Meg played by Terry Jones and Shirley Bieler.

Students prepare to eat their buffet luncheon, and dance to the music of Clyde Phillips.

WE HONOR

ALTON F. DOWNER

"Tony" Downer has been more to us than an able band director. As our Senior Advisor he has made our last year as M.H.S. a very cheerful and profitable one. His witty humor, erect posture, and "Van Johnson looks" will be remembered by all of us in years to come. To you, Tony, with our sincere affection and gratitude we dedicate this Chieftain.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

MR. J. D. BLACKFORD, delivers one of his famous speeches.

In the first assembly of the year, there is sure to be a tall, distinguished-looking man on the platform. He is introduced as Mr. Blackford, the superintendent.

Mr. Blackford received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Miami University. He has also done graduate work at U.C., Indiana U., and Columbia. Mariemont is very privileged to have him for their superintendent.

PRINCIPAL

MR. PAUL K. HOWELLS spend a great deal of time in his office.

This year Mariemont has a very fine new principal, Mr. P. K. Howells. He received his B.S. in speech from Northwestern University and his M.A. from the University of Michigan. He is now working on his Ph.D. Other schools he attended were Elmhurst College, O.S.U., Western Reserve, Baldwin Wallace, and Akron U. May this be the first of many successful years at the "helm" of Mariemont High School.

SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. T. J. Gilman, vice president; Mr. W. D. Averill; Mrs. Irma Hodges, clerk; Mr. W. M. Strayer, president; Mr. A. F. Oldham; Mr. W. C. Henize; Mr. J. D. Blackford, superintendent.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL AND SECRETARY

MR. R. A. MARTIN

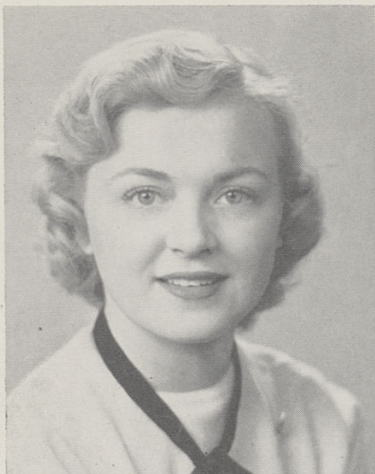

This year for the first time in the school's history Mariemont has an assistant principal. He is that jovial science teacher, Mr. Martin. He received his B.S. from O.S.U. and his Master's degree from U.C. As we see him now, he's dictating to Miss Whitney, our very capable and friendly secretary. May they both continue the great job they are now doing.

MISS D. WHITNEY

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the Mariemont High School class of the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-three, being of sound mind, do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

I, Charlie McDaniel, will my practice socks to Harry Walters, who, I know, will put them to good use. —Also a box of Tide.

We, Nancy Hughes and Maridel Travis, leave nothing. No one ever left us anything.

I, Gene Cain, leave for Texas. (A & M that is.)

I, Jim Durham, will my middle name, Cicero, to Dr. Handman.

I, Jerry Weber, give my height to Miss Adams.

I, Phyllis Whitney, gladly leave Doc and two years of hard work.

I, Marilyn Huheey, leave for college and I'm taking everything with me.

I, Nancy Gilman, leave my place in the band to anyone who thinks he can keep in step.

I, Henry Ware III, will my distinguished title, "the third," to one who is willing to withstand its connotation.

I, Grace Berry, leave my calm, collected manner and lack of dislikes to anyone who wants them.

I, Jenny Haenssel, leave my parties to Doc Kusel.

I, Carl Weiglein, leave my car to Jane Averill if she can see over the steering wheel.

I, Susan Averill, leave "Piggy" in the barnyard.

I, Tom Simmons, leave a picture of myself to Mrs. Davis so she can see me any time she pleases.

I, Nancy Keown, leave my soft voice and quiet personality to Fred Reinhart.

I, Ron McKenney, leave for a long needed REST.

I, Shirley Allee, leave my sweet little sister to haunt Mr. Downer's music department.

I, Richard Federle, leave my "Goose" to some gander.

I, Carol Hayden, leave my column, "High-Lights," to some journalistic student.

I, Jim Brady, leave my speed to Charles Mefford so he may use it in track.

I, Janet Hoevelmeyer, leave my place as majorette to Mr. Downer. He can probably do a better job.

I, Maxine Price, leave my natural wavy hair to Patsy Maloney.

I, Judy Leedy, leave my sister to protect the school from my brother.

I, Ralph Leiman, leave my nickname,

"Lizzard," to an animal without one.

I, Carol Reed, leave my freckles for someone to count.

I, Sid Hawlik, leave my thumb tacks with great feeling.

I, Don Clark, leave my brain power to be distributed among the needy.

I, Mary Amburgey, leave my shoes for someone else to fill.

I, Dick Pahner, leave my locker for some courageous person to clean.

I, Shirley McCracken, leave my sister Pat all my cosmetics which she has not already made use of.

I, Shane Daniels, leave my positions on the football, basketball, and baseball teams to my brothers, Richard and Kent.

I, Harry Moreton, leave my curly hair to Mr. Howells.

I, Ed Tigner, leave my hot '35 Dodge to anybody who has $500.

I, Judy Perkins, leave my laugh to echo down the halls and haunt the future seventh graders.

I, Don Jones, leave my carburetor throat to E. B. Leedy.

I, Denny Straley, leave nothing. Nobody asked me for anything.

I, Janice Bailey, leave my dark hair to Sandy Young.

I, Ken Johns, leave my white fur hat to the future drum major, Charlie Mefford.

I, Betsy Dettwiler, leave everyone confused.

I, Hilda Sellman, leave my size (5'2") to my two sisters who passed me up long ago.

I, Joyce Condit, leave the problems of Mariemont High School to my sister, Jeanne, who is a slightly smaller problem.

I, Bill Ansell, hereby leave my track shoes and numerous blue ribbons to Leigh.

I, Nancy Miller, leave all the T. O. boys to Janet Gray.

I, Richard Edmonds, leave — and Mariemont's loss is some poor cow's gain.

I, Barbara Paulson, leave my driving ability to the chauffeur of next year's class.

I, Patrick Riley, do hereby leave my pleasant sleep in Mr. Miller's class to some other tired lad.

I, Shirley Bieler, leave my pony tail to any pony without one.

I, Phyllis Wardlow, leave the noon rush in the cafeteria to Ruthie Hughes.

I, Terry Jones, leave my way with the women to Carl McCollum.

I, Lou Sandberg, leave my "little" brother

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our class was born in the year of 1940. It seems like a long time since we were "kids" playing with blocks and toys now that this is the time we graduate. They have been twelve long years but ones which all of us will remember.

The first honor to be bestowed upon any of us was when Lynne Applegate was separated from the regular red, white and blue reading groups into her own little section. She even got to choose her own color which was black. Terry Jones was as shrewd in those days as he is now. He used to fake being asleep after our daily rest period so that he could escape "cleaning up" time.

At the same time at our sister-school, Fairfax, Nancy Hughes and Carl Weiglein were writing love notes back and forth. Nancy had him so wrapped around her finger that she called him "Henry" (short for hen-pecked).

In the fourth grade, Don Clark came to us. He was an outstanding student having the record for the number of times sent to the cloak room.

The sixth grade was full of excitement. Two of our basketball teams, Fairfax and Mariemont, clashed twice; and Fairfax won both games. The Dale Park operetta production was a roaring success, the most outstanding acting being an Irish jig by our star, Shane Daniels. Many said he had a voice like an angel, but he danced like the devil.

Soon we had gone through six years of readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic and traveled to the great halls of the high school. Everyone was a little hurt when we were treated as the "lowly" seventh graders when only the year before we had been the "big" sixth graders. We soon became accustomed to it, though, and our three groups of Mariemont, Fairfax, and Plainville ex-sixth-graders immediately blended into one big seventh grade.

The seventh and eighth grades went pretty swiftly. Our class was already beginning to be pretty outstanding in sports as our Junior High track team took the Mariemont Invitational and the upper division of the Junior High M.V.I.L. track meet. Fred Hintze, who came to us in the eighth grade, was elected president of our freshman class. The other officers that year were Jerry Pence, Betty Larson, and Terry Jones.

The pegged pants regime came into being about this time, and none of our male classmates was allowed in home room unless his pants couldn't be taken off without first removing his shoes.

After a seemingly short sophomore year during which our officers were Rodney Jonas, Susan Averill, Betsy Dettwiler, and Fred Hintze; we moved into the money-making junior year. We began to do anything to make money. Our class play, OUR MISS BROOKS, was written to be slightly confusing and turned out to be a little more mixed up than it was supposed to be. Our officers during this important year were Jim Durham, Don Clark, Marilyn Huheey, and Betsy Dettwiler. With candy sales bringing in a large profit, we were able to give a very successful prom at the Terrace Park Country Club, and we had a little cash left over to start our senior year.

Terry Jones was elected president of our senior class and immediately began to work toward financing the annual (as you can see, he made it). The other officers were Bill Ansell, Shirley Bieler, and Don Clark.

Just as we have made the annual, we've made the necessary credits to graduate, and, as we leave, we hope we've made the faculty and students that have helped us through these years believe that this class of '53 has been a good one.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

to anyone who wants him.

I, Rodney Jonas, due to circumstances beyond my control, leave the Mariemont girls.

I, Sarah Hudson, leave my last name to some poor soul who has to walk to school.

I, Paul Houillion, leave my quiet manner to Mr. Trinkle.

I, Elaine Austin, leave my middle name Pearl to any oyster who might come to our school.

I, Joan Mileham, do hereby leave Mariemont to the mercy of my twin brothers, Don and Dick.

I, Barbara Fairbrother, leave my ability to come to school regularly to Margie Rosenberger.

I, Nancy Nesbitt, leave Mr. Trinkle and his "assistant driver" to next year's brave class.

I, Jerry Bennett, leave my ability to get engaged to anyone who wants it.

I, Lynne Applegate, leave my ability to go steady and never fight (?) to Diane Young.

I, Loraine Hunter, leave my red hair to Pat McCracken.

I, Charles Elias, will my desk in 310 for some weary person to rest in next year.

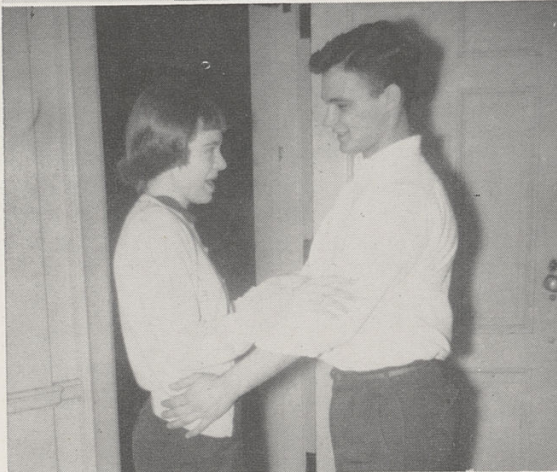

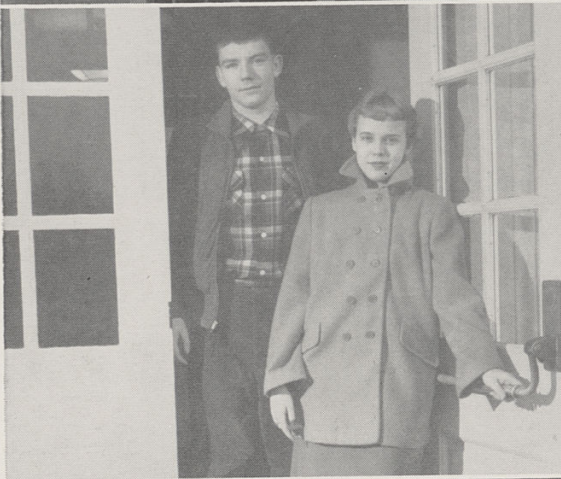

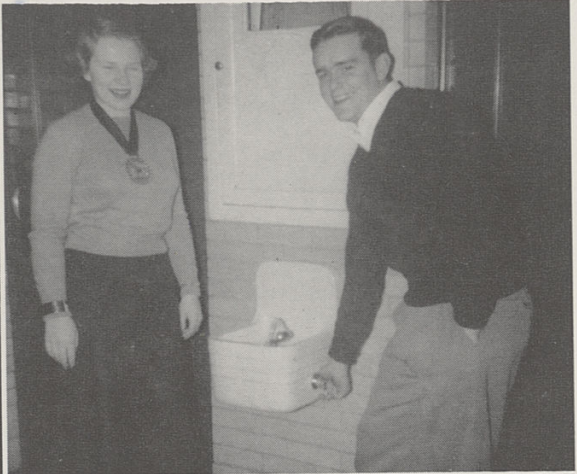

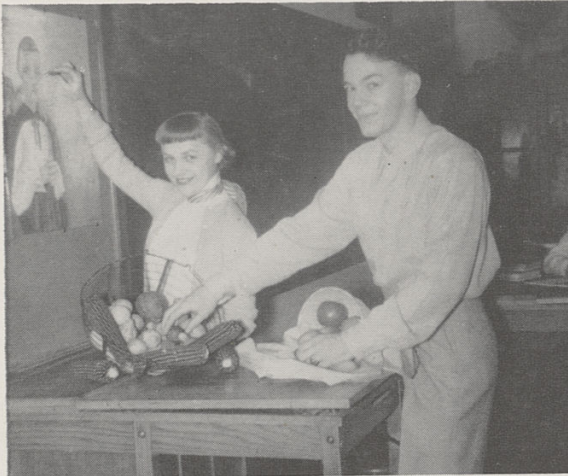

I, Ron Fischer, leave in peace. At last!

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year the Student Council, consisting of representatives from grades seven through twelve, met twice a month. Our council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils.

The year started with the forming of a special committee to schedule social events on the calendar. Around Christmas time a campaign was instigated to clean up cluttered halls. It was also brought to the attention of the Student Council that the price of the basketball games should be lowered.

Our big issue this year was planning a teen canteen for the students of the high school. A committee was formed and they went to Wyoming High School to learn about their youth center. The matter is being considered more closely.

Karen Dollenmayer, Jim Durham, Nancy Hughes, President.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association isn't just a bunch of tomboys who play football and wrestle. It is a club for girls who enjoy competing in such sports as bowling, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and the new sport this year, field hockey. With the adoption of this new sport, many girls were seen sporting swollen eyes, lips, and bruised arms and legs; but as no one was killed and no bones were broken, field hockey will flourish in this school until the sticks are broken and the hockey balls lost.

Every May, the G.A.A. has its annual banquet. Here the awards for being an officer, for being on a varsity team, and for earning the required points are presented. If a girl has earned 100 points, she receives a pin, 200 points—a guard for the pin, 300 points—a G.A.A. letter, and 400 points—a special award.

The big social event of the year is the "Basketball Bounce." This is the semi-formal dance that closes the regular basketball season each year. A fine band is provided and a good time is had by all.

Lynne Applegate, Vice President; and Nancy Keown, President.

Phyllis Riedeman, Chaplain; Dee Towne, Secretary; Shirley Bieler, Vice President; Susan Averill, President; Diane Young, Treasurer.

M-TEENS

Each year the M-Teens' organization is officially begun with the initiation of the new members. A pot luck supper was enjoyed on October 15, 1952, for the informal initiation. This was followed by the formal initiation on October 29. After these two events the freshmen became full-fledged members and were ready to participate in the events of the year.

The Football Royale, organized and sponsored by the M-Teens, was held on November 8, and proved to be one of the biggest school dances of the year. This is an annual affair, always presented at the close of each football season.

At Christmas time, December 17, a delightful party for the children from the Madisonville Orphanage, was given in the Home Economics room. Presents were distributed by Santa Claus—Terry Jones; stories were told by some of the girls, and Christmas carols were sung with everyone joining in. Refreshments were served and everyone spent a very enjoyable evening.

Other highlights of the year were: treasure hunt, selling Red Cross pins, very interesting visit with Mr. L. D. Warren, an artist from the Enquirer, packing of CARE packages, and many movies.

This year the M-Teens fully accomplished its purpose, which is to promote better companionship and fellowship among the girls.

HI-Y

The 1952-1953 season of Hi-Y saw its members enjoy both the fun of taking part in things planned for them and the satisfaction of seeing others get pleasure from something that the club has sponsored. The success of the organization is attributed mostly to the fine leadership of the officers and Mr. Johnson, the advisor, now in his second year of filling the position.

The year was opened with the formal initiation of new members. The nine boys were given a very beautiful and meaningful candle-light service at the Mariemont Community Church, and the Reverend Tom Maurer gave a short talk.

For its meetings interesting movies and fine speakers were obtained. The club took on the selling of programs at the football games as one of its projects. A dance and a hayride were also planned.

Hi-Y boys gave their assistance to the M-Teens in giving a Christmas party for a group of orphans. The party was a great success and the orphans got a huge thrill out of it to say nothing of the tremendous "kick" received by the members who helped.

David Evans, Secretary; John Mallen, Chaplain; Ned Dewire, Treasurer; Tom Simmons, Vice President; and Bill Ansell, President.

MASQUE AND MANTLE

Masque and Mantle is a dramatic club composed of the members of the two speech classes. Any person who takes or has taken speech is eligible to become a member.

Masque and Mantle met once a month for business and social meetings. Their meetings included programs in the art of make-up and the techniques of drama. The president, Hilda Sellman, presided over the meeting with Janice Bailey, vice president, assisting her. The secretary was Bill Ansell and treasurer, Henry Ware.

An annual Christmas play, "As Merry As You Make It," was presented to the student body by Masque and Mantle members on December 23. The cast included: Marilyn Huheey, Bill Ansell, Lynne Applegate, Joan Mileham, and Lou Sandberg.

Each year Masque and Mantle with the funds earned from different projects, keeps the make-up box filled. It also buys the paints for the props and playbooks for reading committees.

NATIONAL THESPIAN

National Thespian, organized last year, has become a fast-growing organization at Mariemont High School. National Thespian is a national honorary organization in which ten points must be earned for membership. This can be done by acting in plays, seeing dramatic stage productions, and doing various jobs in the field of dramatics. For earning extra points special honors are awarded.

This year Nancy Nesbitt was the very capable president. Giving her assistance as vice president was Maridel Travis. Barbara Paulson was secretary and Shirley McCracken, treasurer. National Thespian's plans for the year included the presentation of a dramatic production in the spring.

Next year National Thespian in co-operation with Masque and Mantle hopes to buy lights for the stage.

Standing: Henry Ware, Dave Martin, Ned Dewire, Shane Daniels, Rodney Jonas. Seated: Shirley McCracken, Maridel Travis, Ann McCormak, Hilda Sel'man, Lois Row'ley.

Carol Reed, Art Editor; Betsy Dettwiler, Editor; and Marilyn Huheey, Assistant Editor.

CHIEFTAIN STAFF

Take a few brains, a little talent, a lot of hard work, some new ideas, and a few headache powders. Mix well. Bake by the heat of arguments that arise, and serve to four hundred students. That's what it takes to edit an annual.

Betsy Dettwiler was the editor; Marilyn Huheey, assistant editor; Carol Reed, art editor; Henry Ware, advertising manager; and Gene Cain, business manager. Ralph Leiman and Carl Weiglein were the class photographers. Mrs. Fish was the advisor, and under her direction the work progressed through the year.

WAR PATH STAFF

This year the War Path had one of its most successful years. Mrs. Barnes, who served as advisor, assisted the staff, headed by Rob Shackelford, and helped them tremendously towards putting out a fine publication.

As a new idea the paper was reduced to four pages and put out every three weeks. Ned Dewire, circulation manager, worked efficiently a new method of subscription circulation; he put a paper in the lockers of all subscribers, who were more numerous than ever before.

Rob Shackelford, Editor; Mrs. Barnes, Advisor; Tom Simmons, Feature Writer; and Jim Durham, Assistant Editor.

MUSIC AT MARIEMONT HIGH

The band, performing at half-time of the games, provided football fans with novel entertainment all through the season. The fans at most of the basketball games were entertained between games and between halves by the fine playing of the band.

To raise money the band gave a bake sale, a turn-about dance, and the annual band concert. The money is to pay for new instruments and the new white uniform that head majorette, Jan Hoevelmeyer, wore this year.

Graduating members of the band are drum major Ken Johns, and majorettes Janet Hoevelmeyer, Marilyn Huheey, and Shirley Allee. Other senior members who will be missed next year are Charles Elias, Nancy Gilman, and Judy Perkins.

Drum Major Ken Johns.

Mr. Downer, director of the chorus.

THE CHORUS

The Mariemont High School chorus is composed of approximately thirty girls in grades nine through twelve. They meet daily every fifth bell and have been very active this year under the capable leadership of Mr. Downer.

At Christmas they made many appearances. The first was at the Mariemont Community Church Guild Christmas party. Here the chorus sang an appropriate selection of Christmas songs. They also sang for the Parent-Teachers' Association and for the special school assembly. The latter was put on in conjunction with the Masque and Mantle's one-act Christmas play.

In the spring they participated in the annual music assembly and sang for the pre-Easter services. It was a very impressive and outstanding performance.

This year the students at Mariemont can point with admiration and pride to their chorus, for it has accomplished a great deal and truly merits the praise.

Front to back: Column one—Mr. Downer, John McCarthy, Lynn Jones, Nadine Brosee, Jerry Bullis, Jeff Robb. Column two—Lillie Mae Williams, Bob Myers, Roddy Harwood, David Green, GERAL Jones. Column three—Virginia Lemon, Sandra Neckel, Frances Merriam, John Moulton, Clarence Cassidy, Column four—Charles Hartzel, Carolyn Feeman, Mary Ann

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

The Junior High Band with five new majorettes strutting in front of it marched in the half-time ceremonies of two games this year. They were part of the formations of the "bicycle" and the "Oldsmobile" in the St. Bernard show and the "pumpkin" in the Halloween show.

This is the first year that the Junior High Band has had a head majorette. The head majorette was Jackie Schwartz with Ann Bausmith, Wendy Brehmsmer, Dorothy Stuewe, and Linda High coming behind her.

The Junior High Band which was lacking only two or three toward being as large as the Senior High Band, also performed at the annual band concert.

SENIOR HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Since the Senior Home Ec. Club has been studying interior decoration this year, they have taken trips to the slums to observe the bad living conditions and to Mason to see the prefabricated homes. They had an all day trip in the spring.

At Christmas, with the money earned by selling coffee, cocoa, tea, pretzels, and doughnuts during football games, they furnished a family with food, presents and a tree. They also had their own Christmas party. At this party Mrs. Sargeant of Shillito's gave a talk on fashions for the coming spring.

The competent leaders of this club are: President, Jerry Bennett; Vice-President, Janet Gray; Corresponding Secretary, Judy Lenn; Recording Secretary, Nancy Hughes; Program Chairman, Joan Mileham; and Sponsor, Miss Birks.

FRESHMAN HOME EC. CLUB

Back row—Senior Club officers—Judy Lenn, Corres. Sec.; Nancy Miller, Treas.; Jerry Bennett, Pres.; Nancy Hughes, Rec. Sec.; Phyllis Whitney, Prog. Chm.; Phyllis Wardlow, Vice Pres. First row—Freshman Club officers—Jean Prachar, Corres. Sec.; Janet Day, Vice Pres.; Delores Moermond, Sec.; Judy Schuler, Treas.; Carla Schuettler, Pres.

This year the club has joined the Future Homemakers of America. They have pins to show their membership. They took a trip to Henry Harris, Inc. to study merchandising.

The freshmen also supplied a family with presents, food and a tree at Christmas. They earned the money by selling gingerbread after school.

Back row—Judy Elias, Marilyn Stormer, Peggy Shannon, Judy Schuler, Nancy McEwan. Second row—Nancy Doll, Carol Doll, Delores Moermond, Carol Dinkle, Darlene Gehring, Janet Dewire, Dorothy Mount, Linda Mazza, Barbara

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

Junior Classical League is the Latin Club for those pupils taking third and fourth year Latin. The purpose is to widen the views of Roman life and culture.

Our biggest meeting falls on Latin Day, March fifteenth. This is the day that Julius Caesar was slain.

At the end of the year, all seniors look toward the big honor of receiving the gold key for four years of Latin work. It is awarded on Recognition Day.

Susan Averill, Treasurer; Jim Wheibley, Vice President; Harry Walters, Secretary; Marilyn Huheey, President.

SCIENCE CLUB

The present name of the so-called Science Club is the Science and Projectionist Club. This change in name is due to the fact that the membership is now limited to only those people skilled in the operation and maintenance of the school's projection, recording, lighting, and public address equipment. Some of the students have a daily bell in the projection booth where they show movies when wanted.

The Science and Projectionists Club is an outstanding opportunity for students who are interested in photography or science in any field, and each year many take advantage of its work toward bettering the understanding of this great field.

Ned Dewire, Secretary and Treasurer; Skipper Edmonds, Vice President; Charles Elias, President.

Standing: Ned Dewire, Fred Mansell, Carol Buschbacher. Seated: Mr. Downer, Mrs. Kreider, Miss Birks, Judy Leedy, Janice Bailey.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

World Neighbors as presented by Rob Shackelford, Lou Sandberg, Jim Whelpley, Terry Jones, and Bill Ansell.

Under the capable hands of Mrs. Kreider, the assembly committee has given us the wonderful assemblies we have had this year. Each year the committee hires and plans the paid assemblies for the following year. This year we have had such interesting programs as:

General Electric's House of Magic
The Southland Singers, a Negro vocal quartet

Mr. Vance Clark's slides of his European trip

Mr. Kirt Bennett's dramatizations on the Life of Lincoln

Music Assembly directed by Mr. Downer

The three Lenten services with Reverend Tom Maurer officiating.

Recognition Day Assembly by Mr. Blackford and Mr. Howells

In order to raise money for these assemblies, the committee held a bake sale during the Madeira basketball game.

WARRIORS ON THE GRIDIRON

Mariemont finally came up with a better-than-average football team this year, as its record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie proves. After opening the season with a twelve to six loss to Deer Park and a twenty-all tie with Greenhills, the team really started going places.

Undefeated Wyoming was the toughest hurdle towards a successful campaign, but the boys took them in hand easily. After defeating Lockland the Warriors were crowned M.V.I.L. co-champs, behind Deer Park.

An offensive record of 253 points, a defensive record of 76 points, and an individual scoring record of 90 points by Halfback Charlie McDaniel were established.

Seniors who will be missed next year are: Ends—Bill Ansell, Rodney Jonas, Don Clark, Terry Jones, and Ed Tigner; tackle Harry Moreton; guard Jim Brady (co-captain); centers—Carl Weiglein and Dick Pahner; backs—Charlie McDaniel and Shane Daniels (co-captain); and place-kicker Rich Federle.

Congratulations to Mr. Kusel, Mr. Berringer, and Mr. Davies from everyone for their fine job with the team.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Back Row: Tommy Brady, Ron Sandberg, Bruce Moreton, Tony Watts, Gib Pahner, Bill Dunham. First Row: Charles Simmons, Harold McDaniel, Bill McCormack, Bob May, Mr. Trinkle.

Mariemont's reserve team really made a fine showing this year. In addition to compiling an over-all record of twelve wins and three losses, they took the runner-up spot in the M.V.I.L. with a six and one record. Their only loss was to Wyoming by four points.

Karl Roller and Bob Stefanowski continually sparked the team, Roller being the most consistent scorer with 199 points. Stefanowski had 105.

Next year's varsity should welcome the addition of such boys as Roller, Stefanowski, Bill Bausmith, Ken Bachman, and Ray Doll.

Back Row: Harry Walters, Ron Fischer, Don Clark, Ed Singer, Harry Moreton, Denny Straley, Rich Federle, Doc Kusel.
First Row: Bill Ware, Mgr., Terry Jones, Rod Jonas, Jim

Whelpley, Jerry Weber, Shane Daniels, Charlie McDaniel, Fred Reinhart, Mgr.

WARRIORS STATE CHAMPS ON THE COURT

Mariemont's mighty Warriors almost blew the roof off of the Cincinnati Gardens as they exploded with an overwhelming 87 to 44 victory over Philo to win the Class B Ohio State Basketball Championship.

Mariemont defeated Lockland Wayne 68 to 57 to win the Southwestern Ohio Class B Tournament and then moved into the Regional Tournaments at Troy, Ohio. At Troy the Warriors defeated Plain City 59-36 and Randolph 62-37, thus advancing to the semi-finals of the State at Cincinnati Gardens.

At the Gardens the Warriors defeated Holgate 69 to 61 and moved into the finals. In defeating Philo and winning the State Championship Mariemont broke six records. Congratulations to the Champs—an excellent coaching staff and a group of individuals who played like a team.

TRACK STARS

Richard Edmonds runs the 220, 440, and relays.

Don Clark high jumps and runs the quarter-mile.

Ronald Fischer high-jumps and runs hurdles and dashes.

Dave Evans runs the mile.

Harry Moreton high jumps and throws the discus.

Fred Hempel

Back row: Casey Jones, Peter Clark, Joe Fieno, Jim Bowman, Mr. Kusel. Second row: Jack Enright, Fred Hempel, Peter Kuempel, Russ Flanagan, Leigh Ansell, Bill Bausmith,

WARRIORS ON THE TRACK

The track team of 1952 was unfortunate enough not to win any big meets, but they did make a respectable showing in all of them. Our own Invitational saw them come in fifth place, they were sixth in the Lockland Night Relays, fourth in the M.V.I.L., fifteenth at Miami, and seventh at District. A team of high-jumpers also went to Ohio Wesleyan and placed third in their event.

Seniors on the team were Bob Frantz, pole-vaulter; Jim Lottes, quarter-miler; and Don Meyer, who was very valuable in long distances.

Returning lettermen were Bill Ansell and Skip Edmonds, who both ran the 220, 440, and the relays; Don Clark, high-jumper and quarter-miler; Ron Fischer, an excellent hurdler, dashman, and high-jumper; and Harry Moreton, who high-jumps and throws the discus. The juniors were Rob Shackelford and Harry Walters. Rob runs the 440 and Harry runs the 100 and 220 dashes. Sophomores Bill Bausmith, Ralph Budai, and Joe Fieno helped out on dashes and field events.

WARRIORS ON THE TENNIS COURT

In the spring of 1952 the tennis team had a wonderful season. They were awarded the Millcreek Valley Interscholastic League Championship.

Jim Whelpley, Don Romhilt, and Jim Hartman did a fine job with the singles; while Bob Bredenfoerder, Dick Cosby, Mike Nickles, and Roger Swardson got together with the doubles. Whether on the home courts or on foreign blacktop, the Warrior netmen were always a credit to their school, as their record of seven wins and three losses illustrates.

In the Ohio Valley Tournament the boys took a commendable third place; while two, Jim Whelpley and Don Romhilt, made a name for themselves in the individualized district tourney.

All of the boys except Roger will be back next year and they'll be looking for an even more tremendous season.

Back Row: Bob Meyer, Dick Federle, Mr. Davies. First Row: Denny Straley, Ted Budach.

WARRIORS ON THE GREEN

The spring of 1952 brought out the first really organized golf team in Mariemont's history. It gave us some outstanding results in that we saw another M.V.I.L. runner-up.

Coach Art Davies had only four men on his team, but they were all good. Rich Federle was the top man, winning five out of six matches, while Denny Straley was always around to give Richie a battle for top man. When baseball was over, Ted Budach had to contend with Bob Meyer for third spot. This keen competition really produced a worthy team.

Besides owning a record of six wins, one loss, and one tie, our niblickers took a fifth place in the district meet. Richie and Denny, with the aid of some younger boys, should make the following year a real advancement in the rise of golf as a major sport at Mariemont.

Back row: Mr. Ernsting, Charles Hartzel, Don Blust, Ed Singer, Jim Jones, John Mallen, Allen Spellman, Steve Gerard, Jim Cook, Dave Martin, Jim Root. First row: Jim

WARRIORS ON THE DIAMOND

The 1952 Mariemont baseball season opened in March with a game at Bell Tower field. The first game was with Deer Park and we lost 1 to 5; the Warriors also lost their second game with Reading, 2 to 3.

However, the team came back to win their next six games from Terrace Park, 8 to 7; Anderson Township, 7 to 5; St. Bernard, 10 to 9; Country Day, 10 to 3; Lockland, 13 to 6; Greenhills, 4 to 1. Then the last two games with Wyoming and Anderson Township were lost respectively with scores of 6 to 7 and 1 to 15.

Our pitchers were Rodney Jonas, who won one and lost none; Ted Budach, who won three and lost three; Gene Morris, who won none and lost none; and Terry Jones, who won one and lost one.

Of the boys who played steadily throughout the season Dick Gall was the leading hitter with an average of .441, Rodney Jonas with an average of .353, Shane Daniels with .333, Terry Jones with .250, and John Gerard with .219 were close behind him.

Seniors who left the team were Dick Gall, John Gerard, Allen Spellman, Jerry Jones, Gene Morris, and Ted Budach.

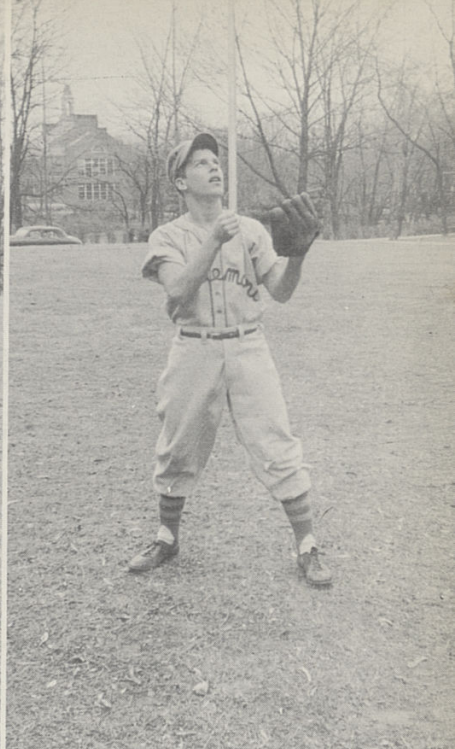

The '52 season was a successful one, the final record being six wins and four losses. Capably managed by Mr. Ernsting, the Warriors have always had a fine baseball team in the past; this year; and, we hope, in the future.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

"And now we come to the second half of 'This Is Your Life' honoring Mr. Paul K. Howells, the distinguished educator," the M. C. Mr. Terry Jones was announcing.

"Sir, do you recall the first class to be graduated with you as principal of Mariemont High School ten years ago?"

"Hum," mused Mr. Howells. "Indeed I do, as though I could ever forget. That would be the class of '53, your class, Terry. I wonder what's become of them since they left us?"

"Ah ha," chuckled Terry, "We have a little surprise for you. You needn't wonder any longer. Come in class of '53 and tell Mr. Howells for yourselves." Laughing gaily, the Mariemont High School graduates of ten years before who had been summoned from near and far filed past their former principal, each stating his present occupation.

Loraine Hunter—beauty operator.

Carol Hayden—news reporter for the Times Star.

Mary Amburgey—dressmaker.

Jerry Bennett—pretzel twister.

Janet Hoevelmeyer—a model in New York.

Hilda Sellman—Miss Tasty Toasties of 1963.

Henry Ware—operator of the Kalamazoo Fish Hatchery.

Bill Ansell—proprietor of the Dixie Belle Diddy Service.

Susan Averill—mother of the first boy quintuplets.

Judy Leedy and Sarah Hudson—wives of cowboys owning dude ranches out West.

Harry Moreton—exterminator.

Shane Daniels—New York anchovy importer.

Elaine Austin—editor of "Austin's Advice for the Love-lorn" column.

Dick Pahner—jet pilot for weekly excursions to Pluto.

Jerry Weber—operator of the Tunnel of Love in Coney Island.

Lou Sandberg—manager of a bobby pin factory in Hoboken.

Barbara Paulson—professor of entomology.

Carl Weiglein—head floor walker in Macy's ladies' lingerie department.

Nancy Keown—torch singer in the Latin Quarter.

Rodney Jonas and Don Clark—operators of the Jonas-Clark Studio of Modern Terpsichore.

Gracie Berry—worm breeder.

Jim Brady and Charlie McDaniel—members of a pro croquet team.

Jim Durham—deep sea diver.

Nancy Gilman and Shirley Allee—new members of the Radio City Rockettes.

Joyce Condit—married and has two sets of talkative twins.

"A few of our old grads were unable to be here, sir," explained Terry, "for obvious reasons; but here are telegraphed greetings. One from Janice Bailey who with her husband is a missionary among the head hunters in darkest Africa, and also one from Sidney Hawlik, Richard Edmonds, Patrick Riley, David Evans, Charles Elias, and Ronald Fischer, who are famous archaeologists working on the tomb of King Hadada Hot Foot in Egypt. Last but not least, here is a word of greeting from our chief executive, Betsy Dettwiler, first woman President of the United States."

Smiling with pleasure Mr. Howells joined in as the class of '53 united in singing their alma mater.

FAREWELL...

Graduation is here. And though we never believed it could happen to us, we are about to leave the halls that have sheltered us for so long. But we are leaving behind only the material things. Memories, knowledge, and experience which we have acquired at Mariemont will go with us always.

We are not the first class to be born into a world filled with problems, nor will we be the last; but we feel that we have been well prepared to face whatever lies ahead. For this we owe our appreciation to our faculty and parents. It is they who have helped us and been patient with us through our growing years.

Now it is time to say good-by. We have our memories that we shall never, never forget. We have thanked those who gave us their assistance. All that remains to be said is that we shall do our best to make our school proud of us and live according to the ideals that are a part of Mariemont.

B. L. D.

ALMA MATER

Hail, blue and gold! To thee we will be true,
Where'er we go, whatever we may do.
When years have passed and turned to memory,
Dear to our hearts, thou shalt forever be.

Though childhood's days are happy, carefree days,
The world looms large with dark and unknown ways,
Knowledge can be the torch of lasting light;
Knowledge of truth can make our highways bright.

On through thy halls an endless stream shall pass,
Hopeful and eager, class succeeding class.
As they go forth to goals inspired by thee,
Dear to our hearts, thou shalt forever be.

We, the Senior Class of 1953, wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our friends who have supported us in the job of preparing this annual. Our special thanks go to our principal, all teachers who advised us in time of need, and parents who gave us their time and energy by patronizing our projects.
