

Phoebe Acheson, Secretary
Sandy Young, President
Charlene Ator, Vice-president
Miss Adams, Adviser

M-Teens

This is M-Teens . . . a group of high school girls gathered together to work, plan, and play . . . to get better acquainted . . . to help people enjoy themselves . . . to provide social activities . . . to render service to the school and community.

Remember, M-Teens members, the initiation by candlelight . . . our thirty-six new members . . . Sandy Young's breakfast party . . . selling doughnuts off of tin foil-covered sticks at games . . . the election of class representatives and sergeant of arms . . . serving hot coffee and doughnuts on "parent's night" . . . our amendments to our Constitution.

Remember . . . the "Sea Sensation" held under the wave covered ceiling of the gym . . . the shell earrings . . . Jane Averill, Queen of Football, and Craig Runyan, King . . . the twenty orphans we entertained at Christmas . . . Bob Loomis as Santa Claus . . . the "Twin Twinkle" after the Lockland game.

Remember . . . Miss Adams, our sponsor . . . our meetings every other Wednesday . . . our discussions . . . speakers . . . board meetings . . . our laughter . . . our seriousness . . . our plans. Yes, this is M-Teens.

