

Calendar

- September 8- School begins, summer tans and polished floors fade together.
- September 10- Preview game. Kilts make debut.
- October 1- Seniors throw first dance of the year.
- November 2- Ping pong shots are taken. Oh, that poor camera!
- November 3- P.T.A. open house. Parents become students once more.
- November 6- "Sea Sensation" (Football Royale) Jane Averill and Craig Runyan get seasick.
- November 20- Senior Play. The scent of lavender permeates the building.
- November 25- Holiday begins.
- December 3- Football Banquet. Forty boys break training.
- December 18- Hi-Y Hayride. 10% below 0, but we've got our love to keep us warm.
- December 20- Juniors receive class rings. The big swap begins.
- December 23- Christmas is ushered in with parties and dances.
- January 3- School resumes. Ugh!
- January 12- First snow of the season. Sled riding takes place of studies.
- January 22- "Twin Twinkle." M-Teens' treasury overflows.
- January 26-28- Cram! Cram! Cram! Ha!
- January 28- Senior Scholastic Tests. Twenty seniors feel stupid.
- February 3- Student directories go on sale. Cute girls receive phone calls.
- February 26- Basketball Bounce. G.A.A. chalks up another success.
- March 18 & 19- It's great. It's Colossal! "It's a Buoy."
- March 30-31- Resounds with the clicking of brain cells as students compete in the District-State Preliminaries.
- April 22- The audience and the little dog laughed together.
- May 7- Thirty-six students bless Miami campus with their presence and their mental abilities (?)
- May 13- National Thespian gives a One-Act Play festival.
- May 27- Recognition Day Assembly.
- May 31- Final exams. The midnight oil burns late.
- June 2- Junior-Senior Prom. No-Doze and Bromo-Seltzer prevail.
- June 3- Commencement. Seventy-seven high school seniors become freshmen in the school of life. (Did I see tears?)
- June 14-