OLIVER J. GOSSARD

We, the class of '56, have been both impressed and inspired by the likeable personality, and fine capability of one who has been a friend as well as a leader. Mr. Gossard's friendly nod, and cheery greeting have helped to brighten many a school day. His jovial manner, his patience and kind understanding, his ability to make our classes both interesting and informative—these and many other outstanding characteristics will long be remembered by all of us.

Mr. Gossard, may you continue to be living proof that teachers are people.
