

Hall of Fame

JEANNE CONDIT

Jeanne is well known to all persons who faithfully attend the football and basketball games. She is a varsity cheerleader and has really made the stands ring with cheers. This makes her a real leader. Jeanne is pep personified and is co-president of the Pep Club. Her ready smile and friendly manner have made her many friends and great popularity.

CLAYTON SHEA

Clayton knows how to run an organization, whether it be on the football field or at a meeting table. He makes friends quickly and easily, and knows where he's going at all times. Clayton's ability, sense of humor, and tact will take him far in a modern, competitive world.

CAROL CROMER

Her middle name is "determination." Carol wants to study teaching in college. Here is a teacher with a future. She can do just about everything well, and does. Those two big brown eyes, bubbling with life, are her key to all kinds of happiness.

WALTER SIMMONS

Wally is the kind of guy everyone likes and respects. He is a quiet boy, but he makes his presence felt in any group; and, as his Hi-Y work shows, he is a leader. Wally loves the outdoors, working with scouts, and possesses a character that makes him a real asset to the school.

PEGGY JUERGENS

Peggy is most highly noted for her musical ability. Her flute playing and her alto voice in the chorus have made her an important asset to our music department for quite a few years. She is fun-loving and charming, but dependable and will follow a job through to the end.

BOB WHITTAKER

Bob is the kind of guy that you'd like to have around during an emergency. He's an intelligent, level-headed person with a friendly personality and a good sense of humor. Bob has shown his ability as a leader in many capacities. He is respected and admired by all who know him.

