

Our Town of Challenging

A future in business . . . a common desire. Typing—318

The discipline of studying . . . every student's problem. Study hall—204

They say, "All work and no play" isn't the way to live. But in the same respect, all play and no work would lead to a very dull existence; therefore, classes. Activities

At ease in front of others . . . most necessary for the future. Eng. IV—307