

Football: They Dig In With

Co-capt. Helgeson, Coach Orrison, Co-capt. Schuler.

What builds a championship team? Energy, stamina, perseverance? Yes, but more...much more. It takes the loud shouts of the jumping cheerleaders, the ever-undulating tension of the crowd, mounting to a clashing climax, then receding, only to rise again as the game progresses. Hard hitting, skilled, die-hard men...a concerned coach...the crowd...the band...the cheerleaders...SPIRIT.

Everything's upside down. This is paydirt! I've got it, I think.

Haycock tries to shake off an eager Tiger tackler.
