Dedication

MRS. FISH AND MRS. DAVIS

"Hail blue and gold to thee we will be true . . ." is a very fitting statement for the two ladies you see before you. To you, Mrs. Davis, and to you, Mrs. Fish, we dedicate the '59 Chieftain.

An intimate knowledge of Shakespeare, a love of histrionics, and a constant desire to expel ignorance in favor of wisdom are accomplishments of our distinguished "lady in blue". Mrs. Davis has tried always to instill in our minds and hearts the deep satisfaction of accomplishment; thus we Seniors, some quite unknowingly, take with us into the world a confidence in our own abilities and a vast insight into the history of our English forefathers that would have been barren without her efforts. We owe to her more than we can say.

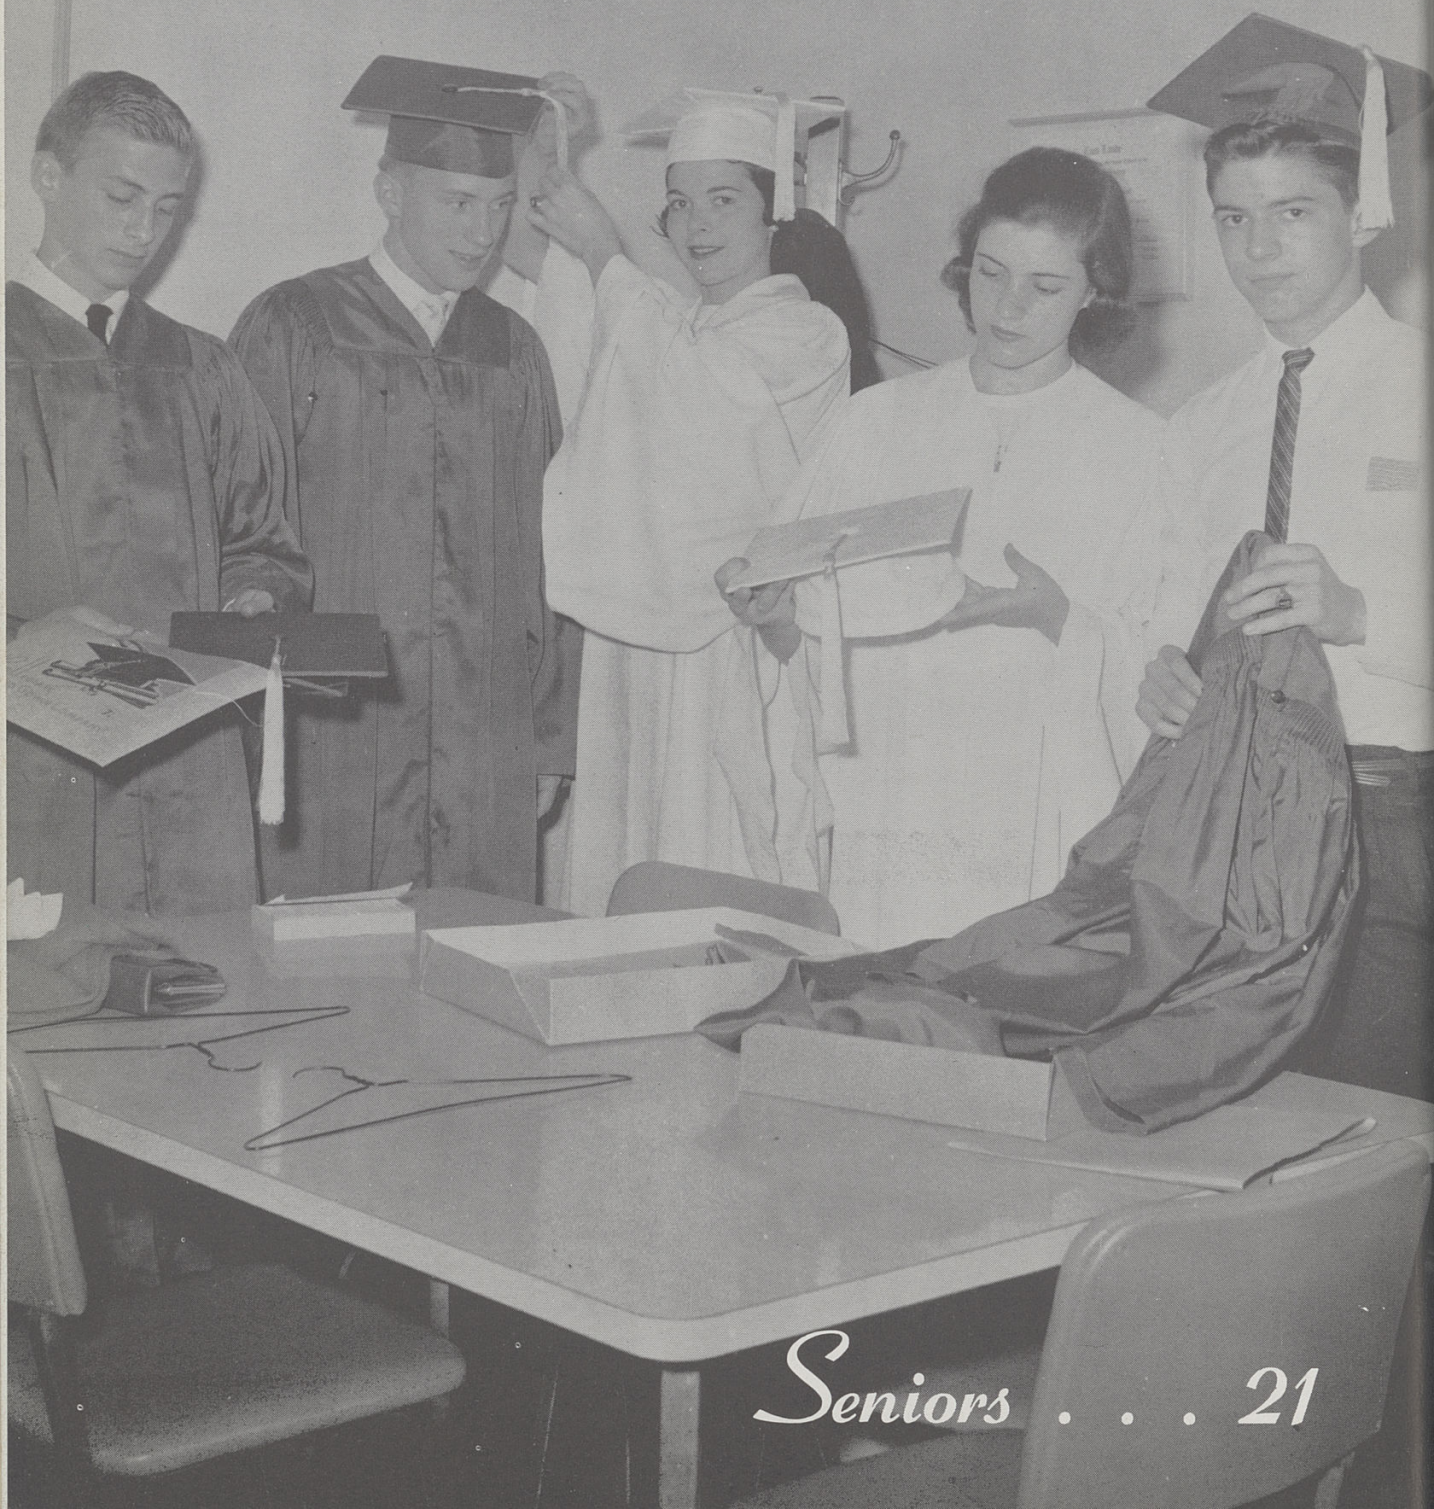

Without Mrs. Fish there would be no Chieftain. Year after year, she works her heart out and applies herself diligently toward meeting deadlines, saving money, and inspiring editors, all of which produce a better book. Such devotion cannot go unmentioned. Her artistic mind and touch help to inspire her art classes, as well as to create in those with whom she comes in contact, imagination, perseverance, and deep admiration for her. This golden touch can be seen throughout any Chieftain. It comes from her heart of gold.

Thus, we have the "Blue" and the "Gold". What could be more fitting for our dedication?

Administration . . .

You see, the faculty and administration of Mariemont High School have long been noted for their fine quality of leadership. Not only are they way ahead in teaching abilities and experience, but they are far superior in personality and character. They offer to the students of M.H.S. something special, a fair shake.

Seniors . . .

You seniors are on the threshold of a new world. Behind you lies your old realm of dependency. Now you step across life's portal just as Emily crossed from the earthly life into her new existence. You too may go back and visit the past, and this book will serve as your medium.

History Of The

Lynn Marshall, Jack Winkler, Bill Winkler,
Charles Schuler, Joyce Stephens

"Next — This won't hurt a bit." These were the words we heard on vaccinating day at Fairfax School.

Kindergarten brought many rousing times; throwing sand on the floor; climbing on the "jungle gym" during naptime; cookies and milk — but on the other hand it prepared us for the life we were to follow for many years to come.

First, second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades passed by, and finally we were seventh graders of Mariemont High School, an important segment of the class of '59.

Remember how it was back in Dale Park kindergarten? There are only a handful of us charter students remaining now. Yes, this being the transient community that it is, we've seen many a friend come and go. Some stayed for many years; others, only a few weeks. The names are too numerous to mention, but the exchange of ideas and the companionship with our friends will never be forgotten. Many of our present class joined us lately and are here to help bolster our forces.

Let's try to remember some of those humorous things that happened in our childhood days . . . like Don's bouncing art gum erasers off the teacher's glass book cases; or Peggy's sucking her thumb; or Charlie's affection for the Principal's office; or Tad's selling yo-yos wholesale; our scuffles in the cloak rooms; the rush for the cookie line at the snack break in mid-morning; our snowball fights and the following reprimanding; John's testing out the law of gravity while attending the Children's Symphony, by spitting over the banister from the top floor and narrowly missing a fellow music-lover; and the pact the boys made to sun-tan their legs before appearing in shorts in those mixed gym classes.

Our years at Dale Park were climaxed by Bob's being appointed Major of the safety patrol guards. He had a network so imperviously set up that even the most crafty among us had some troubles. Yes, some of these things we'll want to remember, and some we'll want to forget.

The Terrace Park portion of the senior class started out as a class of twenty and from that number seven are graduating. During the elementary grades our number grew considerably. In our freshman year we were joined by the Newtowners, and as juniors we came to Mariemont. We were skeptical at first, but after a short time we became an important part of the M.H.S. class of '59. We are not separate groups from different communities working against each other, but just one senior class, striving to help ourselves and the glory and honor of Mariemont High School.

ROBERT YARMARK

"Kind words cost
nothing, but are worth much."

JOE BELLAMY

Joe is the versatile guy who does everything from running the mile to co-editing the annual. He is at the top of the class with his excellent grades and pleasing personality. It is not enough to say that Joe is a fine person. It is only a certainty that he will make his mark in the world.

JO ANN FLUBACHER

"Jo" is another one of those very busy seniors. She has been active in many things but now devotes most of her time to cheerleading and guiding GAA. Her warm smile and friendly manner have earned this attractive girl many life-long friends.

Hall of Fame

DEE STEDRON

Dee is that tall vivacious girl you can spot almost anywhere — usually out on the hockey field or busy with her duties to our senior class as the able vice president. Her charm, poise, and sewing ability have won for her a place on the H.S. sewing board which could lead to a beautiful future.

DICK CRONE

President of the senior class, the driving force behind us all, Dick has the leadership qualities to excel in any field. His prowess on the hardwood and pitcher's mound have garnered the high respect which is equalled only by his own scholastic renown.

KITTY PARKS

Kitty is an attractive senior girl who is always ready with a friendly word. Kitty has long ago established herself as an excellent student. Her quiet manner and clever sense of humor have gained for her many friends and the respect of her teachers and classmates.

DICK GARVER

Dick seems to be successful in anything he tries. His scholarship, artistic ability, tennis talent, and ready wit have made him a very popular person. His great sense of humor and high character are easily revealed in his contagious smile.

NICK ACHESON

Nick is the type of person who draws admiration from all who know him. He is a true scholar, attaining many honors after spending his freshman year in England. His love for the outdoors combined with an appreciation for the finer things in life make Nick acceptable in any social circle.

LESLIE INGRAM

Les possesses the rare ability of being a good friend. The reason for this talent is her warm, honest personality. She is always in on everything and always interested in others. Her vitality and desire for fun make her a bright, happy, pleasant spot in anyone's day.

DENNY CASPER

In the short time that Denny has been with us, he has proved himself a leader in scholarship, athletics, and making friends. His capacity and willingness for hard work make him outstanding. Denny's virtue is not only having the ability to do great things, but using it.

MARIE CAROSELLI

Sparkle, pep, and ability describe this little lassie. Whether it be marching with the Pom-Pom Corps, writing newspaper articles, or in GAA, you'll always find Marie hard at work. If you ever need a job well done, just call on her.

TIM GALLAGHER

Here is an all-around man who will be able to do anything he wants in the future. He has scholastic ability and musical talent; he can throw the discus a "mile", and he is one of those guys who have both feet planted firmly on the ground. Tim has that stand-out quality of always being happy, rain or shine.

BEV LOTZ

Bev is that pretty and vivacious blond that you are apt to see running hither and yon, taking care of her many important duties of co-editing the annual. She has an easy, winning smile and a capacity for always having fun. Whether it is hockey, homework, or making friends, Bev excels.

GENE HELGESON

He's the co-captain of the football team and a leader off the field as well. A ready smile, and a contagious spirit of fun and good will make Gene a welcome addition to any group and a certain success in his life after school.

JEAN WILEY

Jean can think well and has the ability to carry out any job throughly. She has always been ranked high scholastically and has combined poise with a pleasant charm to win for her many friends. Her acting ability, her fine character, and her diligence will place her high in our upcoming generation.

GERRY GREIG

"Ger" is one of those people whom you just naturally like. His cheery disposition and winning smile are just part of what makes him a really "swell guy." Gerry is a hard worker, a trait exemplified by his position of co-editor of the Warpath. Whatever he does, he does well.

SUE SEALE

Sue is a true friend to all who come in contact with her. Her desire for fun and friendly personality shower warmth and pleasure on all around her. Through her perseverance, she has kept the school newspaper alive and has left a lasting contribution to M.H.S. She will never be forgotten in the minds and hearts of those who were touched by her charm.

JIM RITZ

"Fox" is the personality kid. Everyone who knows him well respects him for his humor and intelligence. One reason Jim excels is because he has unquenchable ambition. When he goes at something, he literally attacks it. This is certainly a virtue and a necessity for all truly great men.

JUDY LANCE

Judy has always been an outstanding class member. Her ability as a student won for her a place in National Honor Society, and her singing has made her a star talent. Her many abilities and interests will always reserve her a place in any hall of fame.

JEANNE CONDIT

Jeanne is well known to all persons who faithfully attend the football and basketball games. She is a varsity cheerleader and has really made the stands ring with cheers. This makes her a real leader. Jeanne is pep personified and is co-president of the Pep Club. Her ready smile and friendly manner have made her many friends and great popularity.

CLAYTON SHEA

Clayton knows how to run an organization, whether it be on the football field or at a meeting table. He makes friends quickly and easily, and knows where he's going at all times. Clayton's ability, sense of humor, and tact will take him far in a modern, competitive world.

CAROL CROMER

Her middle name is "determination." Carol wants to study teaching in college. Here is a teacher with a future. She can do just about everything well, and does. Those two big brown eyes, bubbling with life, are her key to all kinds of happiness.

WALTER SIMMONS

Wally is the kind of guy everyone likes and respects. He is a quiet boy, but he makes his presence felt in any group; and, as his Hi-Y work shows, he is a leader. Wally loves the outdoors, working with scouts, and possesses a character that makes him a real asset to the school.

PEGGY JUERGENS

Peggy is most highly noted for her musical ability. Her flute playing and her alto voice in the chorus have made her an important asset to our music department for quite a few years. She is fun-loving and charming, but dependable and will follow a job through to the end.

BOB WHITTAKER

Bob is the kind of guy that you'd like to have around during an emergency. He's an intelligent, level-headed person with a friendly personality and a good sense of humor. Bob has shown his ability as a leader in many capacities. He is respected and admired by all who know him.

Last Will and Testament

- I, Dick Crone, would, if I had the money, leave a bulldozer to each underclassman to fight his way down the halls with more modern methods.
- I, Mary Martha Moore, leave—with the food.
- I, Rick Pauly, leave my uncanny ability to receive football injuries to—no one, I hope.
- I, Jim Ritz, leave R. J. (at last).
- I, Mary Ann Sipe, leave Miss Pfalzgraf in peace.
- I, John Baldwin, leave my How to Argue Logically to any underclassman wishing to get on the teachers' "blacklist".
- I, Marie Caroselli, leave my name to Mr. Mahan, who likes it. I'm tired of pronouncing and spelling it.
- I, Fred Schmidt, leave my seat in government class to Mr. Gossard.
- I, Charlene Miller, leave Mariemont High with fond memories.
- I, Bill Hauenstein, leave my footsteps for someone else to stumble through.
- I, Louise Budai, leave my record of perfect attendance to Pat Barbro, who needs it.
- I, Nick Acheson, leave the family name and "The Bug" to my brother, Toby.
- I, Dianna Droescher, leave some of my belongings and most of my mind.
- I, Bill Winkler, leave M.H.S. in hopes of going into the U. S. Air Force.
- I, Janice Wilson, leave Chester White to C. S.
- I, Fred Fish, leave my love of baseball to Mr. Mahan.
- We, Kitty Parks and Peggy Juergens, leave Mr. Mahan alone.
- I, John Timberman, leave my oversize gym shorts to "Doc".
- I, Bev Streng, leave the popcorn machine to anyone who likes to pop!
- I, Jack Winkler, leave my position on the track and basketball teams to some worthy athlete.
- I, Rudy Bretscher, leave my flat-top to Butch Coward, who ought to have one.
- I, Jo Ann Flubacher, leave my black framed glasses to anyone who thinks he can see through them.
- I, William Neel, leave what 'ere they want, I take with me more than anyone knows, and I shall in the years to come gain the knowledge, wisdom, and beauty of the world.
- I, Jean Wiley, leave in haste, all the study halls for the juniors to waste.
- I, Frank Rahn, leave Mariemont High School before they change my mind.
- I, Denny Casper, leave to Linda Champlain my supply of rubber bands so she can protect herself from characters like me.
- I, Cathy Mecklenborg, leave to Dick Tucker an empty candy machine.
- I, Bill Hoeb, leave with a sign of relief, no more R. J. Miller to cause me grief.
- I, Carol Cromer, leave Pep Club in good hands—I hope.
- I, Doug Johnson, leave my will in the form of a tranquilizer pill.
- I, Dee Stedron, leave my six feet, one inch to the basketball team, to use as they please.
- I, Steve Atchley, leave the school (with pleasure).
- I, Barb Lockwood, following Butch, leave Bette.
- I, Darryl Burns, leave all my traffic situations to Mr. Blake.
- We, Judy Cox, Holly Hofmann, Sue Seale, and Barb Palmer, leave Willow Lane to any junior who wants to take the risk.
- I, Leslie Ingram, leave my ability to have a good time to my sister Carolyn.
- I, Charles Drummond, hereby leave my little green book to Ronnie, so he'll never have to worry about a date.
- I, Adelaide Kerr, leave my innocent eyes to anyone with a guilty conscience.
- I, Ed Burdell, leave my experience with the Terrace Park Police Department to anyone whose car is fast enough and brain small enough.

Class Prophecy

Good afternoon America, this is your favorite newscaster, Dick Kellner, covering the 1974 reunion of the Mariemont High School Class of 1959. The major part of the alumni have yet to arrive here at the Ferris-Johnson Law Agency Auditorium.

I am stationed in the main foyer and have a clear picture of the entrance to this building. As the alumni arrive, I will try to fill you in as to their backgrounds or something about them.

The first group to come in is that of Acheson, Baldwin, Casper, and Crone. Of course you remember these men as the ones who masterminded the recent flight to Mars. I have talked to the captain of this expedition, Gerry Greig, and he assured me that friendly relations have been established even though three of the crewmen, Hoeb, Ritz, and Moeller had set up a crooked blackjack table inside the Martian Capitol.

I have just been told that the limousine of Lynn Marshall has appeared over the horizon. Marshall, sometimes billed as the "World's Fastest Human", electrified the sporting world last year when he became the first man to break the three-minute mile.

Leslie Ingram, Sue Seale, and Bev Lotz have just entered the auditorium. They will long be remembered for their stand on the controversial "Right to Flirt" issue. Following these ladies I see Pat Farra and Ed Burdell. Pat, who is a foundry worker, made headlines last October when she caused UNIVAC to blow its lightbulbs. Ed, an electrician, follows Pat every day with a bag of spares.

The moment we have all been waiting for has come. Dee Stedron and Pete Walsh have entered the foyer. Dee and Pete have so-far been the only inter-class marriage. Dee, a famous casket designer met Pete at a basketball game. For Pete, the ace high-scoring center for the Cincinnati Royals, it was love at first grave-site. The couple seems to get along very well. I understand a family joke is that the towels are labeled "his" and "hearse."

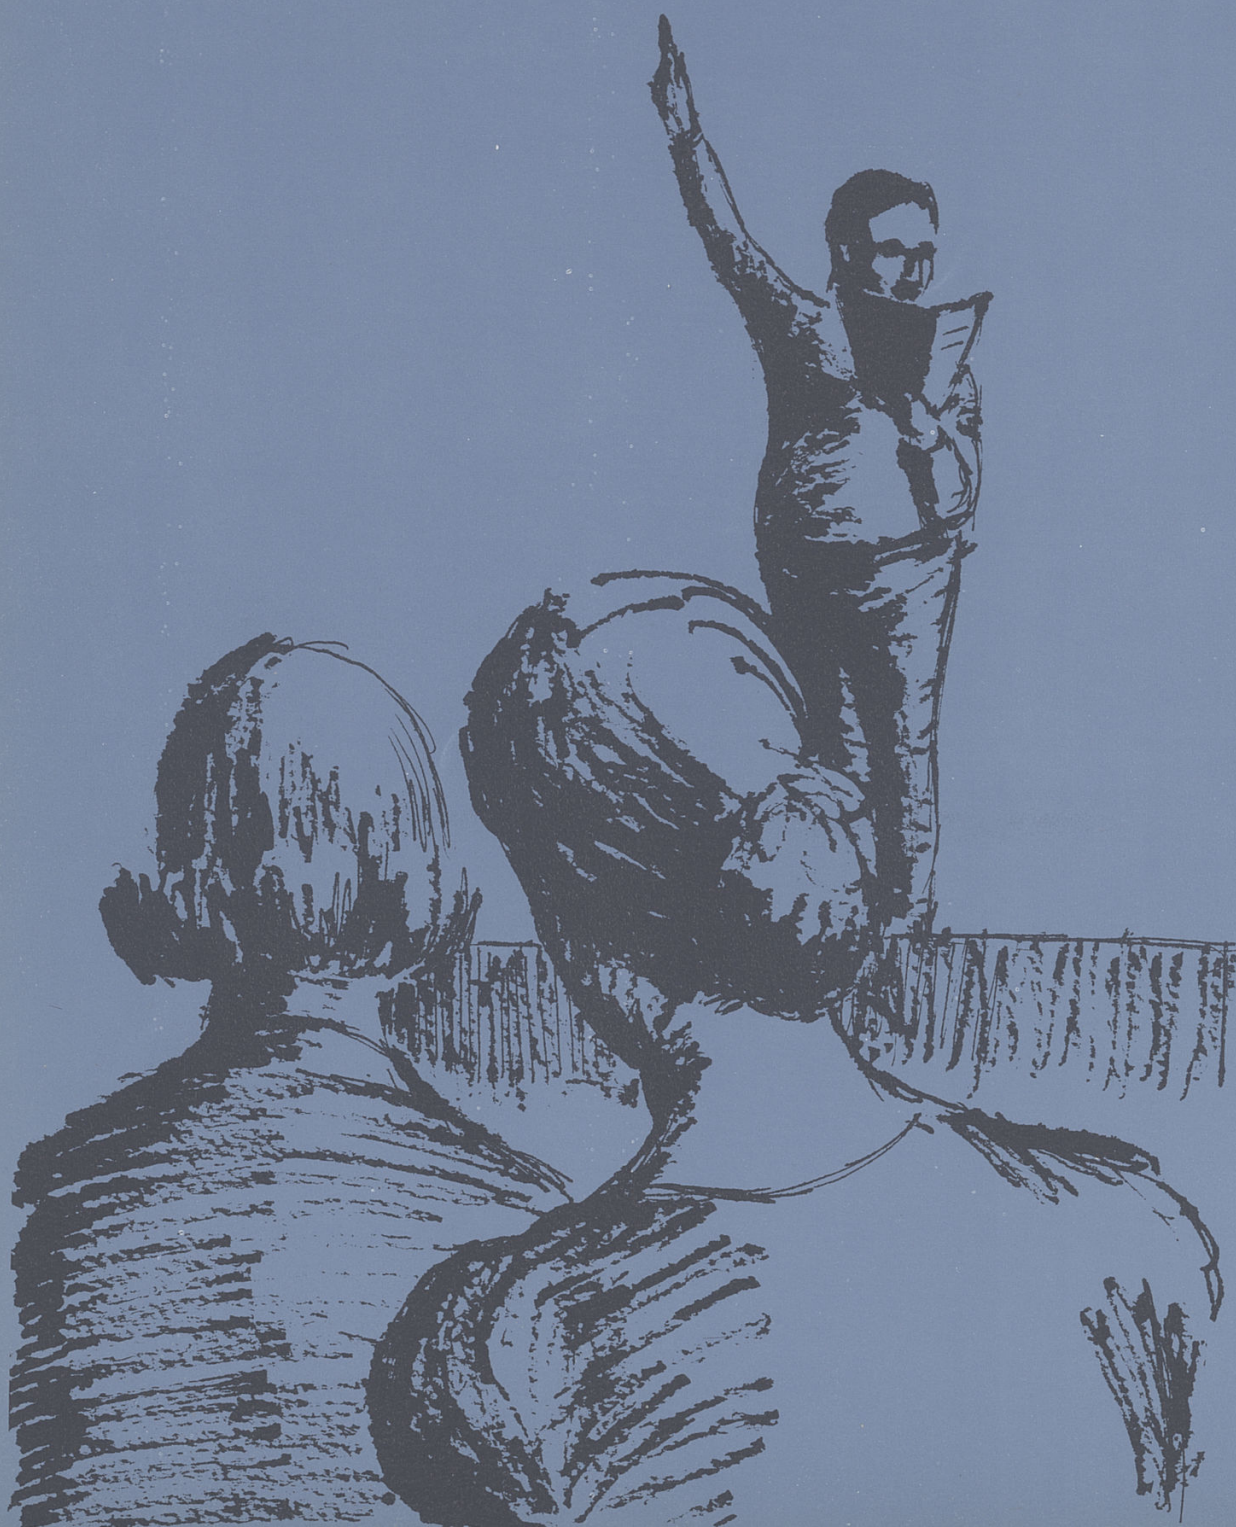

This class seems to have been laden with talent. Several of the male faction not satisfied with political conditions have recently formed a new party. The name of this party is the Republicrats. I am told that they have staunch supporters in Brooklyn and New Orleans as well as starched supporters in Washington.

Several of the alumni have made names for themselves in Hollywood. Famous actors, producers, and directors from this class have pooled their resources and come up with the track epic "Run Silent, Run Fleet". The story is from a book of the same name by Catherine Parks with technical assistance from Gene Helgeson. It stars Rudy Bretscher and Tim Gallagher with Peggy Juergens, Tim Craycraft, and Sandy Coning. The picture was directed by the Winklers, Jack and Bill, and was produced by Yarmark, Huheey, and Knarr Financiers. It was photographed in vivid black and white and 3D astigmatism by the Taber Brothers Optical Illusions Inc. In its few weeks life, the movie has had great success in the United States, although it is going slowly in Borneo.

Now playing on Broadway is an original play by Bryan Walton. It is a suspense-filled mystery entitled "Ushered to The House of Faul." It stars Dick Garver as Charlie Chin and Barbara Palmer as Charlie's other chin. The supporting cast includes Rosie Bain, JoAnn Smith, Steve Kipp, Walter Simmons, Kay Scherer, and Connie Vielhauer.

Underclassmen . . .

Here are the underclassmen. Soon they'll be moving into the senior's places, but now they're just moving along with the crowd. They need a little directing, now and then, as we all do, but they'll make it. Being an underclassman is just another phase of life. It's a time for lots of fun and excitement, with an awful lot of good old hard work too. It's just a preview of what is to come.

Activities . . .

Here we go into another part of the life of our town. Through activities you sort of find yourself, as George found himself while talking with Emily in the drugstore. Here's where folks get their deep-down enjoyment in life. Sure, there's not much of the three R's here, but it's the friendships, the experiences, the kind of learning you can't get from books. This is where we learn to help each other, and by doing that, we learn to help ourselves. Yep, there's an awful lot of good things in this life that you can't touch, or see, but which are worth more than all the money in the world. Let's take a little walk through these next few pages, and notice the joy, the fun, and the inward satisfaction in these people's faces.

"To do things better" was our motto this year. It worked—we've had our greatest year. It was also our aim to make Student Council a part of every student and citizen of Mariemont. We could not hope for a good year unless every person in Mariemont High School worked toward that goal.

This year we originated an Eastern Hills League Council. It included a sportsmanship contest that ran through football and basketball seasons, plus an all-league dance at Castle Farms.

The Council also published a student directory; sponsored the greatest dance ever at Mariemont, The Harvest Moon Ball; created honor study halls; formed an Officers' Club and a school evaluating committee; presented a very successful assembly; and many other incidents and important projects.

Club Lead Our Town

The reason for an Officers' Club is simple — to provide an effective means through which Student Council may work with the school sponsored clubs. Officers' Club consists of the president and one member chosen at large to attend the meetings. They meet once or twice monthly to discuss problems relating to Mariemont High School.

This is Mariemont's newest organization formed early in the 1958 school year. Already it has become an instrument of success. It has given Student Council a means to work with all school sponsored organizations, thus making your school better for you.

Toiling — rejoicing — sorrowing,
Onward through life he goes;
Each morning sees some task begun
Each evening sees it close;
Something attempted, something done,
Has earned a night's repose.

Thanks, thanks to thee, my worthy friend,
For the lesson thou hast taught!
Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortunes must be wrought;
Thus on its sounding anvil shape
Each burning deed and thought!

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Cum Laude

The Cum Laude Society is a national organization whose purpose is to honor scholastic achievement. Mariemont High School, one of six schools in the area to possess a charter, received its charter in 1956. The members of Cum Laude are elected in the spring of their Senior year. To be eligible for membership, a senior must maintain a 3.5 or better grade average through his senior high school years.

Students elected to National Honor Society have received the greatest possible honor the school can give. The four points upon which the election is based are scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Only when a person has proven himself worthy in all these qualifications can he be accepted.

Scholarship Team

In April those interested take the preliminary district scholarship tests. The two people with the highest scores in each subject are chosen to take the finals. Then in May the team makes tracks to Oxford and Miami U. Here they come against competition from all over the state. Mariemont's team usually comes back with nearly everyone placing and many first places.

Merit Scholars

These students are Mariemont's semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. They are among the 10,000 highest scorers in the nation, and are competing for scholarships totaling around $5,000,000. In the final phase of the competition, high school grades, extra-curricular activities, school citizenship, and leadership of the students are evaluated, along with the scores on the tests.

Mightier Than The Sword.

The Warpath should speak for itself! This year the staff has tried to include interests in the newspaper for every student. It has been extended to six pages which contain the newest feature—Junior Hi-Lites.

The co-operation of the students and faculty has given the staff an easy job of meeting deadlines.

A new room has been the highlight of the year. This new room plus the professional help of Mr. Charles Lotz have completed a most successful year!

The Chorus has just enjoyed its most productive year. It was the largest in history, 121 in all. The Variety Show has its basis in the vast musical talent supplied by this group. The Chorus did two Christmas programs, one in February, three at Easter time, a spring concert, and a music assembly. This musically talented bunch also adds to the Baccalaureate and Commencement services. The high point of the year was the acquisition of official choir robes. They will be paid for with the proceeds from three years of the Variety Show, plus donations from interested patrons. Certainly the '59 year will be remembered as the year that the Chorus went "big time".

Every Thursday night, if you listen, you will hear the vibrant tones of music from Bach to Brubeck, floating from the depths of the music room. This means the Hi-Fi Delts are in session.

This club was organized last year to give the high school students an opportunity to broaden their interests in different types of music. Although Hi-Fi Delts is not a large organization, it is very successful in giving its members musical background and a wider interest and appreciation of both classics and jazz.

Breakfast Club consists of a devoted group of sleepy songsters and one devoted sleepy director. They meet before school twice a week at an hour when usually the birds are the only ones up. Once a week they satisfy their appetites before they sing, hence the name of Breakfast Club.

They are so exclusive that new members are admitted only after an audition. Breakfast Club is limiting itself to a small number on the premise that they are interested in quality and not quantity. They have a repertoire of standard songs for all occasions plus several specialty numbers.

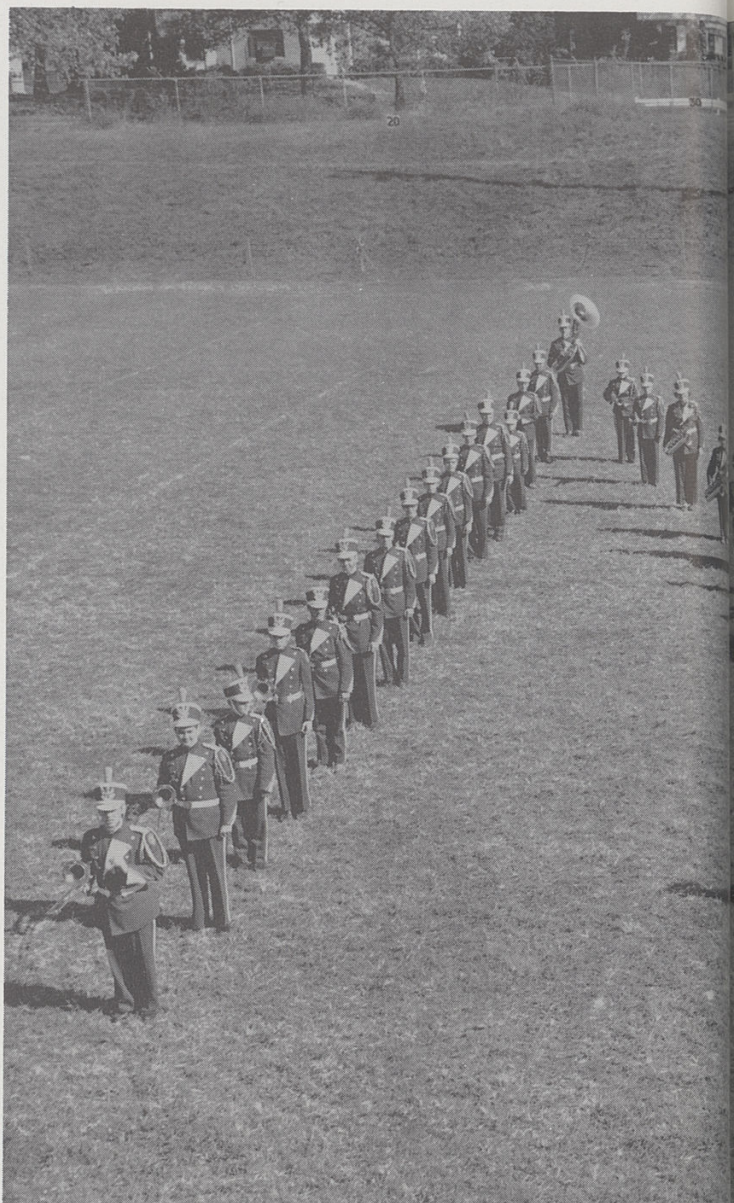

Ginny and Peggy (Jezebel)

This year the band is under the leadership of a new director, Mr. David Willoughby. He has brought many new ideas to us. This year the band performed at all but one of the football games, doing not only shows with a special theme, but also precision drill shows. During basketball season a small segment of the band played, helping to pep up the team. During concert season much new music was presented at a spring concert. The band also played several concerts on the green during the spring. The band marched at a parade in Milford at the beginning of the school year, and they also marched at two Memorial Day parades. The band has certainly had an eventful year.

Majorettes

The high stepping Majorettes this year had a very busy season. Other than performing at half time at football games, with their fire and flag batons, the Majorettes performed during basketball games and at pep assemblies. In the spring, the Majorettes twirled at the concerts on the green, with the Memorial Day parade finishing their busy year.

Our Goal

Concert Band

The hum-drum of the marching season is over, no more cold football games on Friday nights; no more halftime shows; no more "blasting". Now our pent-up energy must find more refined sources of release. The band must settle down somewhat; and they must concentrate their efforts on creating beauty through musical expressions. For this, the concert band exists for those who are interested in music. But it is represented not only by those who find excitement in a stirring crescendo, for who doesn't, but also by the individuals who wish to bring this excitement to others through their own talents. What an opportunity; what a challenge!

Mr. David Willoughby—Director

Pom - Pom Corps

The Pom-Pom Corps started as a group to perform during last year's basketball season. This year, the girls took part in the band shows at all of the football games. The Corps performed with the majorettes at this year's basketball games. The girls also marched at the U. C. band day and in the Milford parade.

Science Club

The purpose of Science Club is to encourage future scientific minds and to provide them with a means of outlet. These ends are accomplished through extra time in the laboratory under the able guidance of Mr. Mahan and through lectures and movies at meetings. Of course the most educational item through the entire year is the annual Science Club trip. This year the young wizards visited Oak Ridge, Tennessee, where they encountered atoms galore. Oak Ridge is the home of one of the largest government atomic plants in existence.

Science is being stressed throughout the world as a result of the recent satellite and rocket progress. This trend has had its effect on our own club. This year, action was stressed and social activity became a lesser motive for attending. One must realize that no honor lies in having abilities, but in using them. Several requirements that limit membership were initiated this year. A member must have taken a Science course in school or must have produced sufficient evidence of a worthwhile scientific hobby. Science Club is not a club for deadbeats. Scientists are doers.

Long live the King! Long live the Queen! These are the shouts that echo in the rafters of M.H.S. at each traditional dance given in honor of football, basketball, or just to celebrate a holiday. It's quite an honor to be chosen royalty; for it means that you are not only popular but also a credit to your team and school. Two of the Royal teams walking among us are Rick Pauly and Jeanne Condit, King and Queen of the Football Royale and Dick Crone and Sue Seale, King and Queen of the Basketball Bounce.

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of the most active clubs in M.H.S. The events of the 1958-59 season proved it. Highlights of the sports events were: intramural and inter-scholastic hockey, volleyball, basketball, softball, bowling, horseback riding, golfing, swimming, and tennis. Other functions included the Initiation Picnic at Ault Park, a potluck Stunt Night, the Christmas party, the Basketball Bounce, and the annual Award Banquet.

and Friendship

The G.A.A. girls sold football passes and served at the Letter Banquet. They also had charge of refreshments for the Moms and Dads at the Parents' Night football game, and several girls worked in the concession room selling cokes and popcorn for G.A.A.

The G.A.A. Banquet was held at the end of the year to award the outstanding members of the organization and to announce next year's officers.

Through the many activities offered in G.A.A., everyone has had a chance to gain and display her ability, sportsmanship, and team spirit, and most of all—friendship.

Office Staff

The office staff is a group of students who give a free bell each day to help Mrs. Root with the routine office work. They collect attendance slips, type, file, mimeograph, and answer phones. This year's office staff is a most efficient one.

Projectionists

The projectionists are a group of boys who give one or more of their study halls per day for the purpose of showing films. In addition to taking part in the audio-visual program of the school they handle the public address systems in the auditorium and gym for various dances, assemblies, and special programs. They also set up and operate the public address and telephone systems at football games and other athletic events.

Cafeteria Assistants

Each student who works in the cafeteria has a certain job. The girls help the cafeteria staff to serve lunch to the students and teachers. Some of the boys scrape the dishes and others wash and dry them. One student sits at the cold lunch table and acts as cashier. These students are a great help to the women who work in the cafeteria.

This group volunteered their time in the medical room helping to administer first aid to their fellow students. There is one of these dependable girls in the medical room each bell, under the expert guidance of Mrs. Meints and Mrs. McElroy. They hope to gain valuable knowledge toward their future careers.

Library Staff

Library assistants are students who give up a free bell each day to work in the library. They take attendance, sign out books, issue passes, put books back on shelves, and take over during the absence of Mrs. Barnes. These assistants are always ready and willing to help one in any way they can.

Pep Club is an organization open to any student in grades nine through twelve. The members are required to attend every football and basketball game and all the games of one spring sport. Reasonable excuses are expected from those who miss a game. Three unexcused absences, and one is no longer a member.

The purposes of the club are to promote school spirit and good sportsmanship. Members sit together at games and cheer the team to victory. The club sometimes provides buses to away games for all those who want a ride. Beginning this year, Pep Club had the pleasure of co-sponsoring the Football Royale with Hi-Y.

Even though it was Pep Club's first year on its own, it has been a most successful and wonderful one, with more promising years ahead.

This year's Hi-Y club enjoyed a well-rounded program consisting of service, sports, and social activities. They began the year by selling MHS bookcovers and football programs; then co-sponsored the football dance, "Bali Hai". Their sports program included basketball, volleyball, and swimming. They participated in World Clothing Week and collected food for a needy family at Christmas time. Hi-Y's curriculum included speakers and movies that were mixed in with the bi-monthly meetings. For those interested in government, there was the Model Legislature at Columbus in the latter part of the spring. One member attended the Hi-Y officers' training camp last summer.

Each year's members try to carry out the purpose of Hi-Y: to create, maintain, and extend a higher standard of Christian living throughout the home, school, and community.

FBLA is a fairly new organization and has been very active in the past year. A few of the purposes of FBLA are to create more interest and understanding in the intelligent choice of business occupations, to participate in worthy undertakings for the improvement of business and the community, and to strengthen the confidence of young men and women in themselves and their work. Some of our projects have been selling of Mariemont High School decals, bake sales, and a job survey. Our interesting programs have included businessmen who told us about their work, a cosmetic demonstration, and a panel of last year's graduates who told us about their present positions in the business field.

In order to go on all day field trip to business offices, each member must earn a total of 750 points. These points are earned by working for teachers, attendance at meetings, and committee work. We all feel that this has been an enjoyable and profitable year.

LATIN LIVES TODAY

Junior Classical League, the Latin club, creates interest in the Roman way of life. Often students become so absorbed in Latin grammar that they forget that this language was once used by very real people. To remind them of this, JCL sponsors several typically Roman activities. The first of these is the slave sale, in which first year Latin students are sold to upper classmen. This finances the Roman banquet, the most colorful event on JCL's calendar. At Christmas time, there is a Roman Saturnalia and in April, thousands of JCL members from all parts of the state meet and attend workshops in which ideas for programs are discussed. At last year's convention contributions from various chapters, including our own, very quickly set up a $500 scholarship which is now available to some student for advanced study in Latin with the intention of teaching. JCL is not only national, but worldwide, and has more members than any other youth organization.

Eat, drink, and be happy; for tomorrow you'll be too tired!

The Prom

The Prom! That wonderful event that is looked forward to by so many. The juniors worked hard all year to give the Prom for the seniors. And to the seniors it is a symbol of their last glorious year.

Last year's prom was the best for many reasons. First the class worked together; the dance was held at Kenwood Country Club; and most important, our Prom was written up in Life.

"Oooh!" Am I full!

At last, a chance to be close... a hand clasp and a smile.

Went On and On.

The prom started about 6:00 p.m. with informal dinners given by the juniors and seniors. After everyone stuffed themselves and had an ice battle, they went home to get ready for the big formal dance. The dance was from 9:00 P.M. to 1:00 A.M., with music by the Clyde Trask band. Around midnight everybody made a mad rush for more food. Everyone dashed home once again, but only to change into warm, informal attire; then down to the public landing for a boat-ride on the Chaperone from 2:00 to 5:00 A.M. Sleepy-eyed, but still awake and determined when the Chaperone docked, the group headed back to Mariemont for breakfast at the Recreation Building. Finally the group headed for home to catch a few short hours of sleep before going out to Coney for swimming, riding, and picnicking. Once more the crowd returned home to eat and change; then back to Coney for dancing at Moonlite. The "wee hours" of Sunday morn found many Mariemont students tired, but happy; and all agreed that this Prom week-end had been a gloriously wonderful one.

Sociability is a big part.

And the band played on...and on.

Ah! . . . the warm sun . . . last night seems so far away.

Sports . . .

Once I knew a real smart fellow who said: "The pigskin spirals into the air and the strains of an alma mater fade into the swish of basket cords and the resounding of hardwood. The echoes of thundering backboards and screaming cheers become the smell of anelgesic bomb and the crunch of spike-tossed cinders. The crack of the bat, the twang of the racket, the long sailing drive to the green, mark an end to this yearly quest for victory. Hopes are high for the future. We must go higher, faster—we must have more strength, more stamina and never give up. We must reach for a better world." That's typical of the youth of our town. They're always trying to make things just a little better for the next guy who comes along.

What builds a championship team? Energy, stamina, perseverance? Yes, but more...much more. It takes the loud shouts of the jumping cheerleaders, the ever-undulating tension of the crowd, mounting to a clashing climax, then receding, only to rise again as the game progresses. Hard hitting, skilled, die-hard men...a concerned coach...the crowd...the band...the cheerleaders...SPIRIT.

Mariemont 27—Loveland 0

Mariemont, Loveland, and Madeira started their seasons on a winning note at the Mariemont stadium as 1,500 fans watched and cheered their team to victory. In the annual preview of the Eastern Hills League, defending champion Mariemont looked very good in downing New Richmond. Jim Rockaway paced the Blue and Gold with two tallys. Shea and Fender each added one.

Mariemont 36—Lockland 0

One of the standout features of this victory was the work of the Warrior defensive unit. It held the Panthers to a total of 68 yards from scrimmage while the Mariemont offense rolled up 265 yards. Tucker, Witt, Coward, Haycock, and Cribbet particularly distinguished themselves.

Mariemont 0—Wyoming 44

To our dismay, the Wyoming jinx held true. Our Warrior team, rated sixteenth in the state before game time, was taken down a few notches. The score was not, however, a true indication of the capabilities of the teams. Just wait until next year!

Mariemont 62—New Richmond 0

A large share of credit for the victory goes to Cribbet, Rockaway, and Haycock. Cribbet scored five touchdowns, piling up 262 yards from scrimmage. Rockaway added three markers and Haycock completed four out of five passes for 86 yards. Evidently the champs didn't like the taste of defeat from the week before.

Mariemont 6—Madeira 0

Fullback Butch Coward's 38 yard touchdown sprint provided the difference, as the Blue and Gold slipped by a tough, unbeaten Mustang team. The game was hard fought with the defense emphasized.

Mariemont 46—Loveland 0

Jim Rockaway's four markers led the victors. Rick Pauly picked off a Loveland fumble on the Tiger 32 yard line to instigate the rout. Haycock, Wineland, and Blakeney tallied single markers.

Momentarily Forgetting All Else

Mariemont 57—Indian Hill 0

The Warriors completely dominated play, although held to a 15-0 halftime lead. Bob Cribbet led the victors with three touchdowns. Fender and Haycock each contributed two markers and guard Jack Woods recorded the seventh touchdown on a 32-yard pass interception. Dave Wineland kicked three extra points while Jim Rockaway scored two others on runs.

Mariemont 23—Milford 6

Mariemont won the EHL football championship for the second straight year by defeating the Eagles of Milford. Pottorf, Shea, and Rockaway each ran a tally while Dave Wineland was our extra point man. Coach Jack Orrison was voted the "Coach of the Week."

Mariemont 16—Wilmington 6

Jim Rockaway, ace Mariemont right halfback, gained 117 yards, 10 more than the whole Wilmington team as the Blue and Gold crushed the larger upstate Hurricanes. Clayton Shea and "Rock" each scored a touchdown.

Mariemont 0—Deer Park 22

Our MVIL friends were a little too stiff for us this year! Let's hope we can come back and clobber them all next year.

The '58-'59 basketball season began with little enthusiasm. The team was not expected to equal the fine record of the team of the previous year.

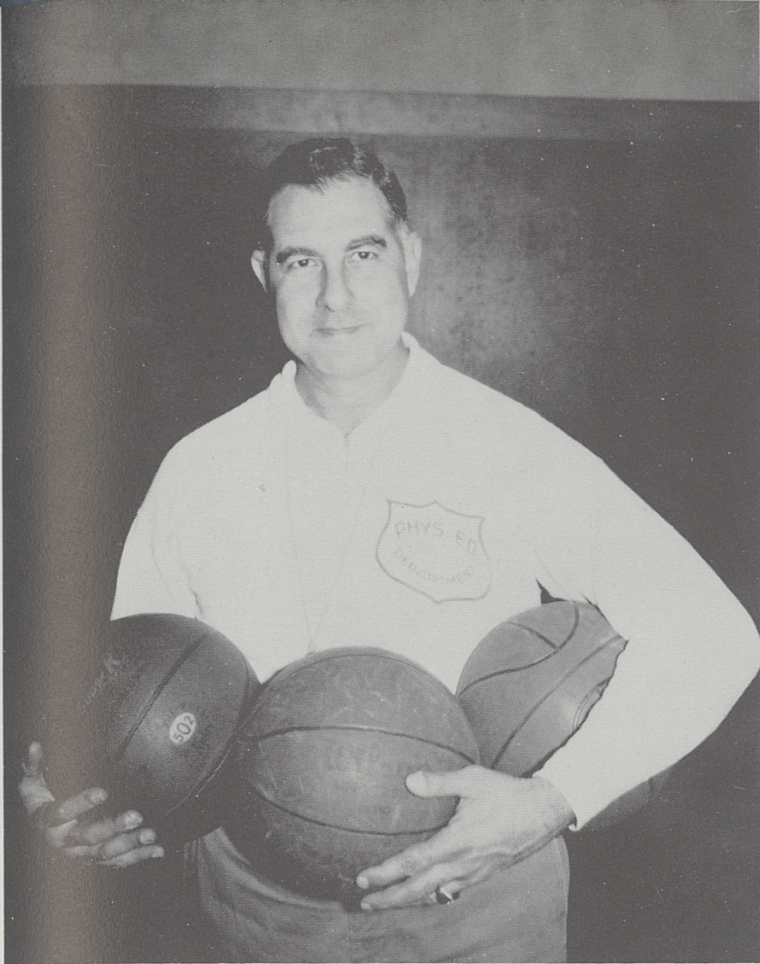

However, the Warriors worked with a goal in view and outlasted all opposition to become the only undefeated team in the city before finally losing in its fourteenth game of the season.

The team spirit was terrific. The players put forth that extra effort which makes champions and which made them champs of the Eastern Hills League.

The fighting Warriors finished the regular season with a 13-4 record including two forfeited games. The boys however, consider it a 15-2 season as many others probably do.

Coach "Doc" Kusel inspired the team to its fine record and gave them the confidence to come through in the traditional M.H.S. manner.

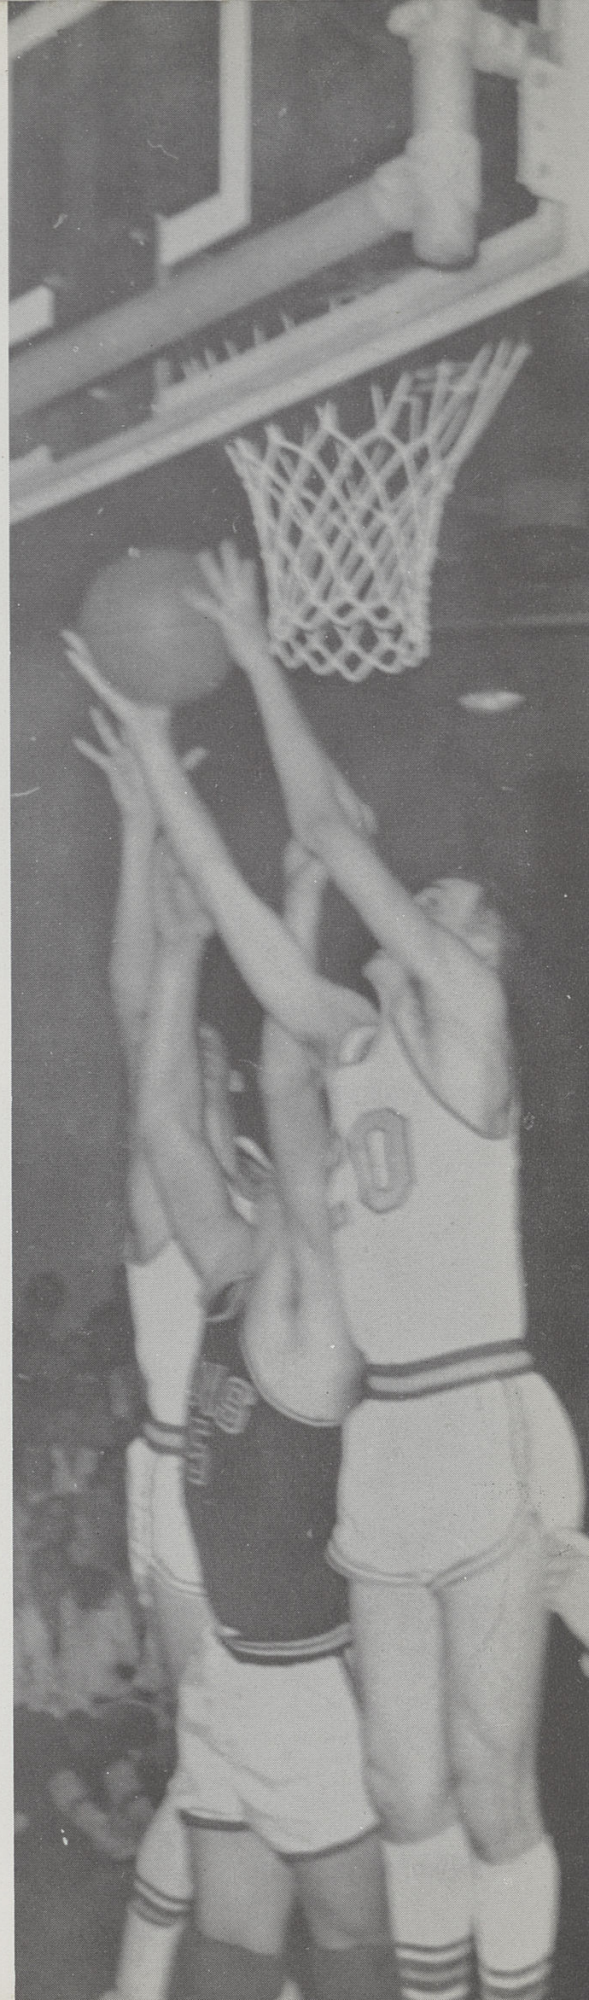

Athletic Director Norman "Doc" Kusel.

TEAM PARODY

We got Dick Crone on our side,
We got Don Hughes on our floor
We got Huheey and Jack Winkler
You can count as three and four,
We got Moeller-Dave and Haycock
And a lot of other sons,
What ain't we got? It's Anderson!

We get Sasser from the bench,
We get Blakeney, we get Witt,
We get Hensel for some shooting
And Den Casper gives his bit,
We get Maerki running boldly,
We get Marsh to pass that ball,
What do we want? Madeir(a) to fall!

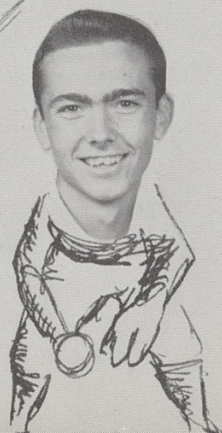

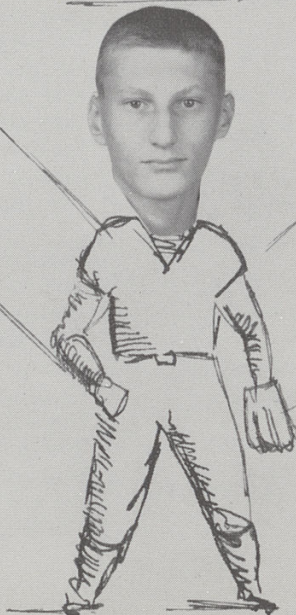

There is nothing like our team,
Nothing in this world,
There is nothing "on the beam,"
That is anything like our team.

They get practice and they listen
To every word of Doc's.
He says when they should go to bed
And what to wear for socks,
They get hungry as a wolf
When all they eat is ice cream.
How do they feel?
Like one great team.

There are no teams like our team—
And nothing looks like our team
There are no "shots" like our team—
And no one jumps like our team
And no one acts like our team—
Or dribbles like our team
There ain't a thing that's wrong
With any man there,
That can't be cured by letting him know
We are rootin' for a might(y) fine,
Mariemont Team!

The baseball team, not to be outdone by football and basketball, copped the E.H.L. championship likewise going undefeated in league play. Our team was lent considerable support this year from Terrace Park newcomers. Tom Marsh and Hugh Gallagher won first string positions, and Don Fender and Carl Lindell were mainstays on our pitching staff. John Spees and Jim Rockaway also saw frequent action. Three-letter men on the squad included Jim McKee, Harold McDaniel, Paul Gillespie, Charles Simmons, Bob Creek, and Rich Jonas. Charles Simmons gathered in the batting trophy by whipping the willow at a .563 clip.

Three of our four leading pitchers were seniors, so this year the pitching chores were on the shoulders of Dick Crone.

Track—Aching Muscles, Guts,

Meet the champions of the Lockland Night Relays and the Harrison Relays. The 1958 Blue and Gold cindermen were feared and admired at every track meet they attended. The loss of the Eastern Hills League meet by one point was a grave end to a courageous season. Mariemont's men swept nearly all opposition in triangular meets while earning praise from all spectators concerned.

"Flying" Gallagher winds up.

The tennis team turned in a creditable season, copping eleven out of sixteen regular season events and showing to good advantage in all the tournaments. Next year big things are expected from underclassmen. The racketeers defeated a highly favored Wyoming team and also took the measure of all the Eastern Hills League teams—a most successful spring.

The backhand stroke is demonstrated by Dick Garver.

The Mariemont High School golf squad marches among the champions of the school. These men won the Eastern Hills League with flying colors and also placed high in the district. Sparked by the professional playing of John Huheey on the turf our team this year was again in contention for the crown.

John Huheey shows the follow through that led him to many victories.

Junior High . . .

Do you remember when you were young? Oh, not real young; back when you were just out of grade school and looking forward to your coming days in the big high school building where everyone is allowed to go to different rooms every forty-five minutes or so, and you could stay up later and everything. People older than you looked awfully big then. But, when you got a little older and grew up a little, you suddenly realized that you were one of those bigger people, and that you weren't nearly so big as you thought you'd be after all.

Our town is a commercial town. Every human being is dependent on every other human being. You know what I mean? Life's that way. Life's a place we're sent to learn everything possible about ourselves. We're all working for ourselves together. We are born, we get married, we die. It's been happening that way for a long time now. Some folks don't get the idea of the thing right off. They have a hard time of it. Well, it isn't the easiest thing in the world. In fact I'd say it was the hardest.

- I, Joy Lemon, leave M.H.S. to my squirt sister, Peggy, the last of the Lemons, for awhile.
- I, Bryan Walton, leave M.H.S. with fond memories, not of the few unhappy experiences, but of the many happy ones.
- I, Sally Fleeson, leave my insurance to the next girl who waves while she's driving.
- I, Pete Walsh, leave to Nick Ingram the seconds by which I have made homeroom so he can take it easy in the morning.
- I, JoAnn Smith, bequeath to all future Government students the fact that Government can be fun provided you are not for the Republican Party.
- I, Dave Moeller, leave my nickname, "The Rat" to Randy Adams.
- I, Doris Hickman, leave, with greatest joy.
- I, Tim Gallagher, leave R. J. to some unsuspecting student ——— let us pray.
- I, Gerre Zinkan, leave my ability to grow long hair to Jo Ann Phifer.
- I, Dick Garver, leave a can of used tennis balls for Mr. Moore to use in physics experiments.
- I, Bonnie Reynolds, leave my name "Squeaks" to anybody who has a voice like mine.
- I, Tom Ferris, leave my understanding traits to all those unfortunates who will lose their mates.
- I, Doris Kirby, leave to find finer and nobler things for my mind.
- I, Jan Gardiner, leave to the lunch room two very clean walls.
- I, Sharon Gore, leave my success in world history to my brother.
- I, Bob Cribbet, leave my long fluttery eyelashes to Dick Stegmaier who I hope makes good use of them in the future.
- I, Ginny Vaughn, leave—without my braces.
- I, Lynn Marshall, leave my practice pants and V-neck "T" shirt to Dick Stegmaier.
- I, Bev Lotz, leave "the little gray bomb, Nellie" to Mike Casper and Steve Isphording, if she is still running.
- I, Tom Curtis, leave my sober ways to "Chester" Boardman, who knows that it pays.
- We, Barb Byrns, Sandy Cooper, and Donna Mullenix, leave this building, future students, and after school talks to "Mom."
- I, Bob Whittaker, leave my "Whit" to anyone interested in using it.
- I, Don Hughes, leave all excess Senior Class money to the O. J. Gossard "Vacation Fund".
- I, Connie Vielhauer, leave my extreme height to one of next year's tall seniors.
- I, Tom Marsh, leave the great name of "Birdo" to anyone who wants it.
- I, Clayton Shea, leave and am I glad to get out!
- I, Dallas Hussey, leave old M.H.S., glad I can still walk.
- I, Walter Simmons, leave my curly hair to Mr. Sininger.
- We, "the homemaker queens," Rosie Bain, Pat Farra, Sandy Coning, and Jeanne Condit, leave apologies to Mrs. Crull for leaving our "treat" crumbs in the oven.
- I, Ken Knarr, leave my M.H.S. baseball cap to Coach Orrison in hopes that the smaller size will stay on his head better than the red one he drop-kicks when his football team blows an easy play.
- I, Karen Foote, will my desk in English to any junior unlucky enough to get it.
- I, Joe Bellamy, leave my contact lenses to Mr. Miller so that perhaps in a few years he may see the light and be able to divide by "O".
- I, Tim Craycraft, leave my nickname "Toe" to anyone who wants it.
- I, Joyce Stephens, leave my gummed up typewriter to any future office experience student.
- I, Gloria Malott, leave my low voice to some boy who needs one.
- I, Gene Helgeson, hereby leave my "Ivy League" ties to our illustrious science teachers, Mr. Moore and Mr. Mahan.
- I, Jim Rockaway, leave to Dave Wineland the analgesic balm, sponge rubber, and tape that I didn't use.

As I look around the foyer I see that most of the alumni have gone into the auditorium. Let's follow those experts on the supernatural Mark McCalla and Jean Wiley, inside and listen to the music of Bob Whittaker's Dixie-Cup Band. Bob, who gave up a promising career as a drummer, has since taken up the Chinese Triangle and has had no end of success with it. Several of the class members are part of this band. Virginia Vaughn is playing the flute, Bev Streng is on zither, Karen Foote plays violin, Cathy Mecklenborg is at the piano, Bob Cribbet is on the drums, sleeping, playing the sax is Phil Kopp, and the two trumpeters are Fred Fish and Jim Rockaway. The rest of the band is composed of a rhythm section of Watusi bongo players. Appearing with Bob as guest vocalist is Miss Judy Lance, long noted for her unequaled bass voice. On stage now, are Tom Curtis and Jan Gardiner singing, with unparalleled realism, "The Beerbarrel Polka."

As this robust, gravity free group dances gaily, I see many people I missed while officiating from the foyer. There's Clayton Shea talking to Gloria Malott, Barb Lockwood, and Bonnie Reynolds, the famous fashion designers. Clayton, as you probably know, was unsuccessful in his attempt to set up a Student Council in the Kremlin School District.

Several of the alumni standing by the refreshment counter represented the United States in the last Olympic Games. Don Hughes won honors in the high jump. The old record was held at 10' 3". Joe Bellamy set the new world mark for the mile run, 2:46. He was accused by the Russians of wearing rockets in his pants. Jeanne Condit, Jo Ann Flubacher, and Adelaide Kerr swam the long distance race in amazing time. The reason was made evident as they passed the judges stand when an alligator was observed to be following them. Judy Scull, Donna Rice, Barb Bollinger, and Charlene Miller took top honors in the discus throw. They had a lot of practice throwing dishes in Home Ec. Mary Moore, Barb Byrns, Carol Cromer, and Sue Dye won the sprint medley. They were accused by the Russians of wearing portable starting blocks.

Milling around the bandstand are Marie Caroselli, Sally Fleeson, Sharon Gore, Doris Hickman, Joyce Stephens, and Pat Kennedy. These girls are all nurses at the Doc Holliday Memorial Hospital. They helped Doctors Bill Neel, Charles Drummond, Rick Pauly, Charles Schuler, and Tom Marsh develop a cure for people who almost die laughing.

Several of the girls must know "How to Marry A Millionaire." Dianna Droescher, Holly Hofmann, Judy Cox, and Joy Lemon each got one. The rest of the girls are happily married, although not all to millionaires. Mary Ann Sipe married a Texan; Donna Mullenix, a druggist; Doris Kirby, a nuclear scientist; Louise Budai, a carpenter; and Sandy Cooper, a rattlesnake-meat salesman from Nevada. The only boys not married are Darryl Burns and Bill Hauenstein. Darryl is very happy as a bachelor and Bill enjoys his life as a hermit in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Well folks, this reunion is just about over. Members of the Norman Leapoff Choir; Dallas Hussey and Janice Wilson, Ron Isenhower and Carol Weitlauf, and Glenn McGee and Gerre Zinkan have moved onto the floor for the last dance. As the band plays "The Bare Feet On Hot Coals Hop," we leave this happy reunion. This is Dick Kellner saying, "Auf wiedersehen until the next reunion."

THE PRECEDING HAS BEEN AN UNPAID SATIRICAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

EPILOGUE

The future will bring forth myriads of new things—new work, new play, new love—and everything won't turn out just like it was supposed to. There will be successes and disappointments. Through autumn hues, through winter's cold, white bleakness comes the sweet breath of spring that matures into the fullness of green summer leaves and blue summer skies. Time marches on and the past fades away.

As the future crowds in upon these past years and your memory of them grows a bit indistinct, may you find pleasure in looking back at that dreamy dance, may you again dimly hear that cheering and shouting of your friends and teammates, may you again see these crowded halls and familiar faces that are long gone, and may you never forget that certain someone who is remembered with a special smile.

"Tomorrow's going to be another day."
