

Peter de Jesus and Yolanda Plair get cozy for a pose

The view from the bus

This year Seniors at Withrow decided to break tradition and go on a boatride instead of a hayride. So on one chilly, windy, October day over fifty of us piled into a bus, drove to Kentucky, and boarded the Mark Twain.

Once on the boat we sang, danced, and had lunch, what else but KFC. If that wasn't your cup of tea there was also a great view of the city.
