

Withrow started a new activity for Seniors and Juniors. Different representatives from area companies and colleges visited the school this fall to give students a broader picture of what is available to them when they graduate. The representatives also offered advice to the students, and many of them now had connections in the business world.

