

VOCATIONAL

This year Vocational Education took on a new look with a new parent group to help in each individual program. Near the end of the year Withrow programs began down sizing the program with the directive coming from the Board of Education. Some programs will be gone along with some of the teachers. I personally will miss everyone and their programs. I would like to apologize for not having all programs represented this year in the yearbook

Mrs. M. Howell

EDUCATION