

Class day began with the gathering in the cafeteria to get lined up for that long walk to the auditorium. There the Senior received special awards and scholarships. Our class president John Davis gave a rewarding speech and then he passed the gavel to the class of 94 president Ki-Afi Moyo.

At the end of the day Sigma Gamma and Dux Femina had selected its new members through the famous Sigs Dance and the Little Sister run.