

Graduation - As Successful The Second Time Around

Withrow Graduation began just as graduation should. . . outdoors. The seniors enter the stadium and were begin to sit down for the opening address from Dr. Rice when the clouds broke loose and began to pour. Students, faculty, administrators and guest darted for the auditorium.

The damp Honorable Leslie Isiah Gaines addressed the crowd from indoors. He spoke without a microphone because there was no electricity.

After Judge Gaines speech, the ceremony was postponed for one week. The seniors got a second chance to put on there cap and gowns. Graduation "day 2" was no less eventfull. The seniors finally received their diplomas.

Valedictorian Ricardo Wilkins speaks of the great times and memories he'll have of Withrow High. Mom shows how proud she is of saluatorian Edward Anuforo

Julian and Christine go casual at Graduation "2".
