● Miss Wanda Hoefle, secretary to Mr. Mathias, is well qualified to have this important position as secretary to the principal. Predominate among her responsible duties is answering the numerous letters which a high school principal receives. Once a month she is quite popular with all the teachers as she has the pleasant assignment of passing out pay checks. Her smile and efficient manner, however, have won her a great many friends and admirers among the faculty and students.

● Miss Madeline Berling caused a great deal of tumult and consternation about Thanksgiving by becoming Mrs. Jack Hammann and being offered a position in the downtown offices of the Board of Education. She, happily for Withrow, refused the latter and elected to remain in her capacity as secretary to Mr. Vigard, assistant principal.
